Environmental Anthropology Today Helen Kopnina, Eleanor Shoreman-Ouimet, 2011-08-05 This collection offers a wide ranging consideration of the field which illustrates how environmental anthropology can increase our understanding and help find solutions to environmental problems

Food Research Janet Chrzan, John Brett, 2017-01-01 Biocultural and archaeological research on food past and present often relies on very specific precise methods for data collection and analysis These are presented here in a broad based review Individual chapters provide opportunities to think through the adoption of methods by reviewing the history of their use along with a discussion of research conducted using those methods A case study from the author's own work is included in each chapter to illustrate why the methods were adopted in that particular case along with abundant additional resources to further develop and explore those methods The Environment in Anthropology Nora Haenn, Richard Wilk, 2006 Presenting ecology and current environmental studies from an anthropological point of view this book gives readers a strong intellectual foundation as well as offering practical tools for solving environmental problems

Collective and Individual Responsibility Jurrien Mol, 2009 A long discussed theme concerning Ezekiel 18 and 20 is the relationship between collective and individual responsibility In the first half of the twentieth century the discussion appeared to end as a result of the introduction of the corporate personality by Henry Wheeler Robinson 1872 1945 This concept became heavily discussed and was dismissed on the grounds of its superseded theoretical basis The continuing use of the concept requires a redefinition and a new theoretical basis which is provided by the multimodal framework by Geoffrey Samuel from the field of cultural anthropology Before applying the concept Ezekiel 18 and 20 are studied extensively relative to textual criticism philology grammar and structural analysis International
