Comparative Literature Matter And Method:

Comparative Literature Alfred Owen Aldridge, 1969 Aesthetics and the Literature of Ideas François Jost, Melvin J. Friedman, 1990 This collection explores the aesthetic principles that pervade all sectors of human activities involving intellectual perceptiveness The three areas of investigation are aesthetics and rationality in the realm of literary history and criticism the genres and meanings in the metamorphosis of the arts and aesthetics in literature society and politics

Reading Old English Texts Katherine O'Brien O'Keeffe, 1997-08-28 Reading Old English Texts first published in 1997 focuses on the critical methods being used and developed for reading and analysing writings in Old English The collection is timely given the explosion of interest in the theory method and practice of critical reading Each chapter engages with work on Old English texts from a particular methodological stance The authors are all experts in the field but are also concerned to explain their method and its application to a broad undergraduate and graduate readership The chapters include a brief historical background to the approach a definition of the field or method under consideration a discussion of some exemplary criticism with a balance of prose and verse passages an illustration of the ways in which texts are read through this approach and some suggestions for future work

Comparative Literature Newton Phelps Stallknecht, Horst Frenz, 1961 Comparative literature a young discipline in this country relatively speaking has needed to have its methods and perspectives defined Here is the first notable attempt to do so Although the essays in this volume may be considered independent contributions they have been motivated by the interest common to all contributors in the problems the student of comparative literature may encounter and the methods he may find useful In each essay the author has undertaken to indicate certain objectives and to characterize certain procedures which he considers essential in approaching his particular problem and in so doing he has tried to illustrate theoretical statements by including examples drawn from his own reading and research As a result these essays will be of considerable assistance in helping the student whatever his special interests to find his way in this broad area of study The first essay seeks to fix the objectives and define the scope of comparative literature It contains an annotated bibliography which the student will find indispensable The second essay considers problems of terminology of which all students must be aware if they are to speak a language understood by one another and the public The third contribution considers the influence of one writer upon another and upon foreign countries and the fourth examines the tremendous importance of translations in this respect Other essays cover the relationship between literature and psychology literature and ideas and literature and the fine arts

Comparative literature Alfred Owen Aldridge, 1969 Introduction to Comparative Literature François Jost, 1974 World Literature Reader Theo D'haen, César Domínguez, Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2012-06 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape Comparing Empires J. Hart, 2003-09-12 By consulting rare manuscripts images maps and books Jonathan Hart explores the relatively neglected empires of Portugal and the Netherlands to draw new conclusions about those of Spain France and England as well as its successor the US The book ranges from the Portuguese voyages to Africa to the Spanish American War of 1898 and concentrates on the frictions and shifting rivalries among the empires A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal Encyclopedia of Postmodernism Victor E. Taylor, Charles E. Winquist, 2003 Provides comprehensive and authoritative coverage of academic disciplines critical terms and central figures relating to the vast field of postmodern studies Publisher s description Early Postmodernism Paul A. Bové, 1995 In the decade that followed 1972 the journal boundary 2 consistently published many of the most distinguished and most influential statements of an emerging literary postmodernism Recognizing postmodernism as a dominant force in culture particularly in the literary and narrative imagination the journal appeared when literary critical study in the United States was in a period of theory induced ferment The fundamental relations between postmodernism and poststructuralism were being initially examined and the effort to formulate a critical sense of the postmodern was underway In this volume Paul A Bov the current editor of boundary 2 has gathered many of those foundational essays and as such has assembled a basic text in the history of postmodernism Essays by noted cultural and literary theorists join with Bov s contemporary preface to represent the important and unique moment in recent intellectual history when postmodernism was no longer seen primarily as an architectural term had not yet come to describe the wide range of culture it does now but was finding power and place in the literary realm These essays show that the history of postmodernism and its attendant critical theories are both more complex and more deeply bound with literary criticism than often is acknowledged today Early Postmodernism demonstrates not only the significance of these literary studies but also the role played by literary critical postmodernism in making possible newer forms of critical and cultural studies Contributors Barry Alpert Charles Altieri David Antin Harold Bloom Paul A Bov H l ne Cixous Gerald Gillespie Ihab Hassan Joseph N Riddel William V Spanos Catharine R Stimpson Cornel West Journal of Comparative Literature ,1903
