BOOK JACKET

Comparative Political Philosophy Anthony J Parel, Ronald C Keith, 1992-09-03 Like many disciplines the study of political philosophy has to a large extent been the study of modern western political philosophy particularly liberalism utilitarianism and socialism As a consequence the study of comparative political philosophy is still in its infancy The contributors to this volume move beyond this Eurocentric bias to facilitate and exchange perspectives originating in European Chinese Indian and Islamic communities They document the responses to the perilous transition from tradition to modernity and address the commonality of human distress which characterizes such momentous transition With respect to the central theme of transition Comparative Political Philosophy is unusual in its coverage of so many eminent political philosophers Aristotle Plato St Augustine St Thomas Aquinas Voltaire Hegel Marx Confucius Mao Zedong Kautilya Gandhi Farabi and Khomeini The book will be of interest to those interested in political theory intellectual history philosophy as well as the general disciplines of political science history and area studies The book should appeal to readers across the disciplinary boundaries

Chinese Environmental Governance Bingqiang Ren, 2013-12-05 In this edited volume leading environmental policy experts from China USA and Europe provide a contemporary view of Chinese environmental policy analyzing current discussions among various actors and agencies The book covers a wide range of topics including the gap between national policy goals and their local implementation cultural and social factors shaping political behavior legal and political systems affecting environmental policy creation and execution new societal forces participating in environmental policymaking and governance and local state strategies tasked with navigating a mix of political legal and societal forces Featuring in depth empirically grounded analyses with interdisciplinary approaches the book is ideal reading for scholars interested in the complex nature of balancing Chinese environmental sustainability and economic growth Cosmopolitan Political Thought Farah Godrej,2011-08-01 Cosmopolitan Political Thought asks the question of what it might mean for the very practices of political theorizing to be cosmopolitan It suggests that such a vision of political theory is intimately linked to methodological questions about what is commonly called comparative political theory namely the turn beyond ideas and modes of inquiry determined by traditional Western scholarship It is therefore an argument for applying the idea of cosmopolitanism understood in a particular way to the discipline of political theory itself As Farah Godrej argues there are four crucial components of this cosmopolitan intervention the texts under analysis the methods for interpreting non Western texts and ideas the application of these ideas across geographical and cultural boundaries and the deconstruction of Eurocentrism In order to be genuinely cosmopolitan Godrej states political theorists must reflect on their perspectives inside and outside various traditions and immerse themselves in foreign ideas languages histories and cultures ultimately relocating themselves within their disciplinary homes The result will be a serious challenge to accepted solutions to political life Beyond Reason Sanjay Seth,2021 Introduction Part I Modern western knowledge under challenge Unsettling the modern knowledge settlement Defending reason a postcolonial critique Part II Postcolonialism and social science The code of history The anachronism of history International relations amnesia and empire Political theory and the bourgeois public sphere Epilogue Knowledge and politics
