The Modal System of Earlier Egyptian Complement Clauses Sami Uljas, 2007 This volume presents a novel analysis of complement clauses in Earlier Egyptian language The grammar of these constructions is shown to be organised around a system for expressing Irrealis and Realis modality Handbook of Descriptive Linguistic Fieldwork Shobhana L. Chelliah, Willem J. de Reuse, 2010-10-06 The Handbook of Descriptive Linguistic Fieldwork is the most comprehensive reference on linguistic fieldwork on the market bringing together all the reader needs to carry out successful linguistic fieldwork Based on the experiences of two veteran linguistic fieldworkers and advice from more than a twenty active fieldwork researchers this handbook provides an encyclopedic review of current publications on linguistic fieldwork and surveys past and present approaches and solutions to problems in the field and the historical political and social variables correlating with fieldwork in different areas of the world The discussion of the ethical dimensions of fieldwork as well as what constitutes the typical linguistic fieldwork setting or consultant is explored from multiple perspectives relevant to fieldwork on every continent Included is information omitted in most other texts on the subject such as the collection representation management and methods of extracting grammatical information from discourse and conversational data as well as the relationship between questionnaire based elicitation text based elicitation and philology and the need for combinations of these methods The book is useful before during and after linguistic field trips since it provides extensive practical macro and micro organization and planning fieldwork tips as well as a handy sketch of major typological features for use in linguistic analysis Comprehensive references are provided at the end of each chapter as resources relevant to the reader s particular interests Up and Down the Cline--the Nature of Grammaticalization Olga Fischer, Muriel Norde, Harry Perridon, 2004-01-01 The basic idea behind this volume is to probe the nature of grammaticalization Its contributions focus on the following questions i In how far can grammaticalization be considered a universal diachronic process or mechanism of change and in how far is it conditioned by synchronic factors ii What is the role of the speaker in grammaticalization iii Does grammaticalization itself provide a cause for change or is it an epiphenomenon i e a conglomeration of causal factors mechanisms which elsewhere occur independently iv If it is epiphenominal how do we explain that similar pathways so often occur in known cases of grammaticalization v Is grammaticalization unidirectional vi What is the nature of the parameters guiding grammaticalization The overall aim of the book is to enrich our understanding of what grammaticalization does or does not entail via detailed case studies in combination with theoretical and methodological discussions Explaining Language Structure through Systems Interaction Zygmunt Frajzyngier, Erin Shay, 2003-11-27 This book proposes a framework for describing languages through the description of relationships among lexicon morphology syntax and phonology The framework is based on the notion of formal coding means the principle of functional transparency the notion of functional domains and the notion of systems interaction in the coding of functional domains The study is based on original analyses of cross linguistic data The fundamental finding of the study is that different languages may code different functional domains which must be discovered by analyzing the formal means available in each language The first part of the book proposes a methodology for discovering functional domains and the second part describes the properties of various functional domains The book presents new cross linguistic analyses of theoretical issues including agreement phenomena attributed to government nominal classification prerequisites for and implications of linear order coding and defining characteristics of lexical categories The study also contributes new analyses of specific problems in individual languages

Coordinating Constructions Martin Haspelmath, 2004-07-29 This is the first book on coordinating constructions that adopts a broad cross linguistic perspective Coordination has been studied intensively in English and other major European languages but we are only beginning to understand the range of variation that is found world wide This volume consists of a number of general studies as well as fourteen case studies of coordinating constructions in languages or groups of languages Africa Iraqw Fongbe Hausa the Caucasus Daghestanian Tsakhur Chechen the Middle East Persian and other Western Iranian languages Southeast Asia Lai Karen Indonesian the Pacific Lavukaleve Oceanic N I mwa and the Americas Upper Kuskokwim Athabaskan A detailed introductory chapter summarizes the main results of the volume and situates them in the context of other relevant current research

Non-nominative Subjects Peri Bhaskararao, Karumuri Venkata Subbarao, 2004-09-30 Volume 2 of Non nominative Subjects NNSs presents the most recent research on this topic from a wide range of languages from diverse language families of the world with ample data and in depth analysis A significant feature of these volumes is that authors with different theoretical perspectives study the intricate questions raised by these constructions Some of the central issues include the subject properties of noun phrases with ergative dative accusative and genitive case case assignment and checking anaphor antecedent coreference the nature of predicates with NNSs whether they are volitional or non volitional possibilities of control coreference and agreement phenomena These analyses have significant implications for theories of syntax and verbal semantics first language acquisition of NNSs convergence of case marking patterns in language contact situations and the nature of syntactic change

Language Typology and Language Universals Martin Haspelmath, 2001 No detailed description available for Language Typology and Language Universals 2 Teilband

Deconstructing Creole Umberto Ansaldi, Stephen Matthews, Lisa Lim, 2007 Deconstructing Creole is a collection of studies aimed at critically assessing the idea of creole languages as a homogeneous structural type with shared and peculiar patterns of genesis Following up on the critical discussion of notions of creole exceptionalism as historical and ideological constructs this volume tests the basic assumptions that underlie current attempts to present creole structure as a special type from typological as well as sociohistorical perspectives The sum of the findings presented here suggests that careful empirical investigation of input varieties and contact environments can explain the structural output without recourse to an exceptional genesis scenario Echoing calls to dissolve the notion of creolization as a special diachronic process this volume proposes that theoretically grounded approaches to the notions of simplicity complexity transmission etc do not warrant considering so called creole languages as a special synchronic type Colorado Research in Linguistics ,1994 Books in Print ,1994 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company,1982

pelkää, ketä pelottaa Mari Siirainen,2001 A Grammar of Tariana, from Northwest Amazonia Aleksandra IñÚr'evna Aikhenval'd,Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald,2006-11-02 This is a comprehensive reference grammar of Tariana an endangered Arawak language from a remote region in the northwest Amazonian jungle Its speakers traditionally marry someone speaking a different language and as a result most people are fluent in five or six languages Because of this rampant multilingualism Tariana combines a number of features inherited from the protolanguage with properties diffused from neighbouring but unrelated Tucanoan languages Typologically unusual features of the language include an array of classifiers independent of genders complex serial verbs case marking depending on the topicality of a noun and double marking of case and of number Tariana has obligatory evidentiality every sentence contains a special element indicating whether the information was seen heard or inferred by the speaker or whether the speaker acquired it from somebody else This grammar will be a valuable source book for linguists and others interested in natural languages Clause Linkage in Cross-linguistic Perspective

Volker Gast,Holger Diessel,2012 The volume is a collection of thirteen papers given at the Third Syntax of the World s Languages conference complemented with four additional papers as well as an introduction by the editors All contributions deal with clause combining focusing on one or both of the following two dimensions of analysis properties of the clauses involved types of dependency The studies are data driven and have a cross linguistic or typological orientation In addition to survey papers the volume contains in depth studies of particular languages mostly based on original data collected in recent field work Functionalism and Formalism in Linguistics: Case studies Mike Darnell,1999 The 23rd UWM Linguistics Symposium 1996 brought together linguists of opposing theoretical approaches functionalists and formalists in order to determine to what extent these approaches really differ from each other and to what extent the approaches complement each other The two volumes of Functionalism and Formalism in Linguistics contain a careful selection of the papers originally presented at the symposium Volume I includes papers discussing the two basic approaches to linguistics with contributions by Werner Abraham Stephen R Anderson Joan L Bybee William Croft Alice Davidson Mark Durie Ken Hale Michael Hammond Bruce P Hayes Nina Hyams Howard Lasnik Brian MacWhinney Geoffrey S Nathan Daniell Nettle Frederick J Newmeyer Edith A Moravcsik Doris Payne Janet Pierrehumbert Kathleen M Wheatley Volume II consists of case studies which draw upon the strengths of both approaches and thus help to bridge the gap between the two camps with contributions by Mira Ariel Melissa Axelrod Robbin Clamons Bernard Comrie Kees Hengeveld Erika Hoff Ginsberg James Hurford Lizanne Kaiser
