1. Import Photos To Validate

How to import photos using Google Drive

In this demonstration, we'll import 5 different portraits to test our AI vision model. For convenience, we'll use Google Drive but feel free to reuse this tool for other sources such as other storage or by using endpoints.

2. Verify Passport Photo Validity Using AI Vision Model

How to verify passport photo validity using AI

Verifying if a photo is suitable for a passport photo is a great use case for AI vision and to automate the process is an equally great outcome for using AI. Here's what we aimed to do: ICA government guidelines suggest these rules and how valid the AI is address the incoming photos following these rules. A structured output parser is used to simplify the AI response which can be used to update a database or backend of your choosing.
