UGC NET Yoga (Paper-II) Study Notes , Creator Culture

Stuart Cunningham, David Craig, 2021-06-22

Explores new perspectives on social media entertainment. There is a new class of cultural producers: YouTube vloggers, Twitch gameplayers, Instagram influencers, TikTokers, Chinese wanghong and others who are part of a rapidly emerging and highly disruptive industry of monetized user-generated content. As this new wave of native social media entrepreneurs emerge, so do new formations of culture and the ways they are studied. In this volume, contributors draw on scholarship in media and communication studies, science and technology studies and social media, Internet and platform studies in order to define this new field of study and the emergence of creator culture. Creator Culture introduces readers to new paradigms of social media entertainment from critical perspectives, demonstrating both relations to and differentiations from the well-established media forms and institutions traditionally within the scope of media studies. This volume does not seek to impose a uniform perspective; rather, the goal is to stimulate in-depth, globally focused engagement with this burgeoning industry and establish a dynamic research agenda for scholars, teachers and students as well as creators and professionals across the media communication, creative and social media industries. Contributors include Jean Burgess, Zo Glatt, Sarah Banet Weiser, Brent Luvaas, Carlos A. Scolari, Damián Fraticelli, Jos M. Tomasena, Junyi Lv, Hector Postigo, Brooke Erin Duffy, Megan Sawey, Jarrod Walzcer, Sangeet Kumar, Sriram Mohan, Aswin Punathambekar, Mohamed El Marzouki, Elaine Jing Zhao, Arturo Arriagada, Jeremy Shtern, Stephanie Hill.

Multimedia Journalism Andy Bull, 2010-02-26

Multimedia Journalism: A Practical Guide offers clear advice on working across multiple media platforms and includes guides to creating and using video, audio, text and pictures. It contains all the essentials of good practice and is supported by an Companion Website at www.multimediajournalism.co.uk which demonstrates how to apply the skills covered in the book, gives examples of good and bad practice and keeps the material up to date and in line with new hardware, software, methods of working and legislation. The book is fully cross-referenced and interlinked with the website which offers the chance to test your learning and send in questions for industry experts to answer in their masterclasses. Split into three levels, getting started, building proficiency and professional standards, this book builds on the knowledge attained in each part and ensures that skills are introduced one step at a time until professional competency is achieved. This three-stage structure means it can be used from initial to advanced level to learn the key skill areas of video, audio, text and pictures and how to combine them to create multimedia packages. Skills covered include writing news reports, features, email bulletins and blogs, building a website using a content management system, measuring the success of your website or blog, shooting, cropping, editing and captioning pictures, recording, editing and publishing audio reports and podcasts, shooting, editing and streaming video and creating effective packages, creating breaking news tickers and using Twitter, using and encouraging user-generated content, interviewing and conducting advanced online research, subediting, proofreading and headlining, including search engine
