Defending and Declaring the Faith Alan P. F. Sell, 2012-09 Between 1860 1920 a number of distinguished Scottish theologians grappled with the problems of reconciling a biblical faith with current philosophical and theological trends Alan Sell has selected eight of these John Kennedy of Dingwall 1819 1884 Robert Flint 1838 1910 John Caird 1820 1898 A B Bruce 1831 1899 James Iverach 1839 1922 James Orr 1844 1913 D W Forrest 1856 1918 and James Denney 1856 1917 The book is not only of historical interest many of the issues confronted by these scholars are also of contemporary interest Professor James Torrance comments This study is invaluable in keeping alive the authentic tradition that Scotland has produced great theologians but perhaps supremely in the period covered by this eminently readable book Confessing and Commending the Faith Alan P.F. Sell, 2006-09-01 Since Christianity is a way and not simply a theory commending the faith to others is an activity in which every Christian participates Confessing and Commending the Faith discusses the presuppositions which underlie the intellectual commendation of Christianity in the face of the philosophical challenges of the present day Following his earlier books John Locke and the Eighteenth Century Divines and Philosophical Idealism and Christian Belief Alan Sell proposes a way of proceeding with Christian apologetics in the twenty first century He discusses what Christians wish to proclaim asks whether these claims are reasonable and examines what is involved in the intellectual commendation of the Christian faith Confessing and Commending the Faith makes extensive use of the historical tradition of apologetics and brings this work to bear on contemporary questions such as the meaning use and reference of religious language and the question of transcendence in relation to history Alan Sell argues that if the intellectual commendation of Christianity's claim to truth is to be viable contemporary apologetics must draw upon reason revelation and experience to do justice to Christianity's basic confession of Christ as Saviour and Lord Defending and Declaring the Faith Alan P. MacColl, 2006-04-20 This book probes the deep rooted links between the land the people and the religious culture of the Scottish Highlands and Islands in the nineteenth century The responses of the clergy to the social crisis which enveloped the region have often been characterised as a mixture of callous indifference cowering deference or fatalistic passivity Allan MacColl's pioneering research challenges such stereotypical representations of Highland ministers head on Land Faith and the Crofting Community is the first full scale examination of Christian social teaching in the nineteenth century Gaidhealtachd and addresses a major gap in the historical understanding of Gaelic society Seeking to lay bare the existing myths by a wide ranging analysis of all the denominational theological and social factors at play this study boldly overturns the received scholarly and popular interpretations A ground breaking work it explores a substantial but under utilised field of evidence and questions whether or not Highland Christians both clergy and laity were committed to land reform as an engine of social improvement and conciliation The Christian contribution to the development of a distinctively Highland identity which found expression during the Crofters War of the 1880s is delineated while wider links between theology and social philosophy are examined from beyond the perspective of the Highlands Philosophical Idealism and Christian Belief Alan P.F. Sell, 2006-09-01 There is now renewed and growing interest in post Hegelian idealism which was in its heyday at the end of the nineteenth century This book is concerned with the religious and socio ethical aspects in the writings of selected idealists It addresses the question was post Hegelian philosophical idealism in its friendliest guise more a help than a hindrance to the expression of Christian convictions and the articulation of Christian doctrines In pursuit of an answer the author discusses the writings of seven British idealists who if not in every case entirely doctrinally orthodox were by no means unkindly disposed towards the Christian faith T H Green Edward Caird J R Illingworth Henry Jones A S Pringle Pattison C C J Webb and A E Taylor The book opens with an account of the formative intellectual influences upon the seven idealists and their consequent philosophical positions There follow chapters on God ethics and society and Christian doctrine The conclusion passes some positive and negative judgments upon post Hegelian idealism in so far as it bears upon or expresses Christian belief It also broaches the underlying question of the method of Christian thought vis vis the general intellectual environment Evangelicals Mark A.
