Defining Literary Criticism:

Defining Literary Criticism Carol Atherton, 2005-09-27 Outlining the controversies that have surrounded the academic discipline of English Literature since its institutionalization in the late nineteenth century this important book draws on a range of archival sources It addresses issues that are central to the identity of academic English how the subject came into existence and what makes it a specialist discipline of knowledge in a manner that illuminates many of the crises that have affected the development of modern English studies Atherton also addresses contemporary arguments about the teaching of literary criticism including an examination of the reforms to A Level literature The Theory of Literary Criticism John

M. Ellis, 2022-05-27 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974 Defining the New Testament Logia on Divorce and

Remarriage in a Pluralistic Context Yordan Kaley Zhekov, 2009-01-01 Christian marriage is a permanent union which requires the commitment of both spouses for its maintenance through fulfillment of its stipulations The failure of the fulfillment of the latter provides legitimate grounds for divorce and remarriage of the innocent party This work employs a fourfold approach for the development of NT ethical argumentation based on Richard B Hays Moral Vision of the New Testament The author establishes the proper contextual grounds for the NT study through formulation of the Old Testament perspective on marriage as covenant The relevant NT passages are examined through historical critical and narrative critical methods A critical study of the main Christian traditions leads to an ecumenical formulation of the theological conclusions Pragmatic implementation of the thesis follows an examination of the contemporary pluralistic context and applications in both Christian communities and the larger society within its legislative system Reconstructing Criticism Philip Smallwood, 2003 This study aims to bring the modern theory of literary criticism and Pope's Essay on Criticism of 1711 into a more productive and interesting association than critical historical structures have generally allowed Smallwood marks out in current terms and in depth the specialized theoretical and aesthetic problem of defining criticism He recognizes that criticism no more than literature or art cannot be finally codified or defined but insists on the need for clarity in the exposition of criticism's purposes and a fuller consciousness of a common community of practice available to audiences outside the academic fold Affirming the unfailing currency and utility of the term criticism as new languages have taken over the critical domain or have sought to replace or abolish literature Smallwood distinguishes between the normative definitions that are everywhere apparent in modern theory of criticism and the advantages to conceptual comprehension achieved by Pope's poetic idea of criticism in the Essay The New Cambridge Companion to Biblical Interpretation Ian Boxall, Bradley C.

Gregory, 2022-12-22 This Cambridge Companion offers an up to date and accessible guide to the fast changing discipline of biblical studies Written by scholars from diverse backgrounds and religious commitments many of whom are pioneers in their respective fields the volume covers a range of contemporary scholarly methods and interpretive frameworks The volume reflects the diversity and globalized character of biblical interpretation in which neat boundaries between author focused text focused and reader focused approaches are blurred The significant space devoted to the reception of the Bible in art literature liturgy and religious practice also blurs the distinction between professional and popular biblical interpretation The volume provides an ideal introduction to the various ways that scholars are currently interpreting the Bible It offers both beginning and advanced students an understanding of the state of biblical interpretation and how to explore each topic in greater depth A Study in Critical Theory , An Introduction to the Methods and Materials of Literary Criticism

Charles Mills Gayley,Fred Newton Scott,1899 Comparative Characterization in the Sermon on the Mount Arren Bennet Lawrence,2017-03-24 The Sermon on the Mount contains many comparisons In this book the functions of these comparisons are studied by the methodology called comparative characterization Characterization is the way a character is characterized in a narrative Comparative characterization is the characterization of a character using comparisons In comparative characterization another character is used as a foil to bring out a characteristic trait of a concerned character Jesus characterized the ideal disciple in the Sermon on the Mount with many descriptions and imperatives To characterize the ideal disciple Jesus used many comparisons and highlighted the characteristic features that embody the ideal disciple The many comparisons used in the Sermon on the Mount are identified in this study through comparative characterization In addition the teleological purpose of the comparisons which is to play as foil to the characterization of the ideal disciple is identified and highlighted Thus this study identifies Jesus characterization of the ideal disciple and his complex portrayal of the ideal disciple with the many uses of comparisons in the descriptions and imperatives of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount

Remapping China at the East-West Intersection Jun Zeng,You Wu,Keyan G. Tomaselli,2025-09-09 Remapping China at the East West Intersection composed predominantly from back copies of Critical Arts draws on the rich reservoir of studies that map a diverse range of research on Chinese literature art and culture at the intersection of East West encounters This compilation offers a comprehensive exploration of Chinese cultural studies through the lens of global dialogism and intercultural exchange Structured into four thematic sections Overview Chinese Narratives Chinese Art and China and New Media the book brings together twenty scholarly articles that collectively examine the complexities and nuances of Chinese culture in a global context The overview section sets the stage by discussing the scope methodology and perspectives of cultural studies from an interhemispherical viewpoint It is followed by the Chinese narratives section in which scholars critically engage with traditional Chinese narrative forms and their reception in Western contexts The next section on Chinese art focuses on the intersection of traditional and contemporary Chinese art forms Finally the China and New Media section addresses the impact of digital technologies on Chinese culture Through these diverse perspectives this book not only contributes to ongoing academic discourses but also deepens the understanding of China's cultural heritage and its evolving role in the global context. This volume re-presents for an international audience a set of theories, methodologies and studies that have been both shaped by and have themselves influenced global trends. By integrating interdisciplinary and dialogic approaches, the book offers fresh insights into the dynamic exchange and interactions between Chinese and Western cultures.

The Comedian as Critic Matthew Wright, 2012-05-24. Some of the best evidence for the early development of literary criticism before Plato and Aristotle comes from Athenian Old Comedy Playwrights such as Eupolis, Cratinus, Aristophanes and others who wrote numerous comedies on literary themes, commented on their own poetry and that of their rivals and played around with ideas and theories from the contemporary intellectual scene. How can we make use of the evidence of comedy? Why were the comic poets so preoccupied with questions of poetics? What criteria emerge from comedy for the evaluation of literature? What do the ancient comedians' jokes say about their own literary tastes and those of their audience? How do different types of readers in antiquity evaluate texts and what are the similarities and differences between popular and professional literary criticism? Does Greek comedy have anything serious to say about the authors and texts it criticizes? How can the comedians be related to the later literary critical tradition represented by Plato, Aristotle and subsequent writers? This book attempts to answer these questions by examining comedy in its social and intellectual context and by using approaches from modern literary theory to cast light on the ancient material. Towards A Definition of Topos Lynette Defining the Art of Grammar Minna Seppänen, 2014. The subject of this dissertation, which belongs to the field of Classical Philology, are the definitions of the art of grammar found in Greek and Latin sources from the Classical era to the second century CE. Definitions survive from grammarians, philosophers and general scholars. I have examined these definitions from two main points of view: how they are formed and how they reflect the development of the art itself. Preliminaries.
