Delayed Impact The Holocaust And The Canadian Jewish Community:

Delayed Impact Franklin Bialystok, 2000 In Delayed Impact Franklin Bialystok explores the evolution of the legacy of the Holocaust in the collective memory of the post war Canadian Jewish community He seeks to understand why the Holocaust's effect was relatively muted up to 1960 moved to the forefront with the rise of antisemitism in the 1960s and became a prominent concern and marker for Jewish ethnic identity after 1973 Bialystok begins by examining the years immediately following World War II showing that Canadian Jews were not psychologically equipped to comprehend the enormity of the Holocaust Unable to grasp the extent of the atrocities that had occurred in a world that was not theirs Canadian Jews were not prepared to empathize with the survivors and a chasm between the groups developed and widened in the next two decades He shows how the efflorescence of marginal but vicious antisemitism in Canada in the 1960s in combination with more potent antisemitic outrages internationally and the threat to Israel's existence led to an interest in the Holocaust He demonstrates that with the politicisation of the survivors and the maturation of the post war generation of Canadian Jews in the 1980s the memory of the Holocaust became a pillar of ethnic identity Combining previously unexamined documents and interviews with leaders in the Jewish community in Canada Bialystok shows how the collective memory of an epoch making event changed in reaction to historical circumstances His work enhances our understanding of immigrant adaptation and ethnic identification in a multi cultural society in the context of the post war economic and social changes in the Canadian landscape and sheds new light on the history of Canadian Jewry opening a new perspective on the effects of the Holocaust on a community in transition Franklin Bialystok is a part time lecturer in the Department of History at the University of Toronto and the University of Waterloo He has published numerous articles on the Holocaust in various journals and edited collections Refugees from Nazi-occupied Europe in British Overseas Territories Swen Steinberg, Anthony

Grenville, 2020-04-28 Refugees from Nazi occupied Europe in British Overseas Territories focusses on exiles and forced migrants in British colonies and dominions in Africa or Asia and in Commonwealth countries The contributions deal with aspects such as legal status and internment rescue and relief identity and belonging the Central European encounter with the colonial and post colonial world memories and generations or knowledge transfers and cultural representations in writing painting architecture music and filmmaking The volume covers refugee destinations and the situation on arrival reorientation and very often further migration after the Second World War in Australia Canada India Kenya Palestine Shanghai Singapore South Africa and New Zealand Contributors are Rony Alfandary Gerrit Jan Berendse Albrecht D mling Patrick Farges Brigitte Mayr Michael Omasta Jyoti Sabharwal Sarah Schwab Ursula Seeber Andrea Strutz Monica Tempian Jutta Vinzent Paul Weindling and Veronika Zwerger Undiplomatic History Asa McKercher, Philip Van Huizen, 2019-04-30 When the field of Canadian history underwent major shifts in the 1990s international history became marginalized and the focus turned away from foreign affairs Over the past decade however the study of Canada and the world has been revitalized Undiplomatic

History charts these changes bringing together leading and emerging historians of Canadian international and transnational relations to take stock of recent developments and to outline the course of future research Following global trends in the wider historiography contributors explore new lenses of historical analysis such as race gender political economy identity religion and the environment and emphasize the relevance of non state actors including scientists athletes students and activists The essays in this volume challenge old ways of thinking and showcase how an exciting new generation of historians are asking novel questions about Canadians interactions with people and places beyond the country s borders From human rights to the environment and from medical internationalism to transnational feminism Undiplomatic History maps out a path toward a vibrant and inclusive understanding of what constitutes Canadian foreign policy in an age of global connectivity

Ideological Battlegrounds Dana L. Solomon, 2018-12-04 Can entertainment challenge divisive ideologies Can we use theater film games novels and stories disarm the ideologies of fear Ideological Battlegrounds Entertainment to Disarm Divisive Propaganda introduces and develops Ideologically Challenging Entertainment ICE to challenge us versus them narratives ICE counters polarizing perspectives by embracing multiple valid viewpoints without losing sight of facts Additionally this book explores the first ICE production Two Merchants The Merchant of Venice adapted to challenge ideologies related to the Arab Israeli Conflict A mixed methods study of audience responses to this production showed that a significant number of audience members reconsidered their views not only about the Arab Israeli conflict but also about ideological divisions that were more personally relevant Ideological Battlegrounds is unique both in its conceptualization of entertainment as a means to address local and global conflicts and in its provision of evidence for the power of performance as a tool for confronting and influencing ideological change This book offers a new approach to bridging dangerous ideological chasms that without significant intervention will only continue to worsen
