

Read&Write - Teacher Lesson Plan

Lesson 2 - Writing and presenting with Read&Write

Teacher Notes:
This series of activities is designed to give students a practical experience of using Read&amp;Write to support them in all aspects of Literacy. Designed with progression in mind, the series of three activities will build skills and context around the application of those skills in the learning process. In this activity learners will use prediction and dictionaries to compose a written passage. Prediction aids with sentence structure, writing fluency and expanding vocabulary. Learners will also learn how to create audio files from their written work to develop listening skills and to use as a revision tool
Age Group:	11 - 15	Time Required:	30 Minutes
Resources Required:	Read&Write installed on all computers Internet access Optional - headphones/headsets Lesson 2 activity sheet
Curriculum:	As a skills activity, any curriculum/topic can be used that is age and ability appropriate
Pupil Outcomes:	Pupils will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand how to use the prediction tool to help writing technique</li> <li>• Understand how to use the read aloud function to proof read text and make appropriate changes</li> <li>• Know how to create an MP3 audio file and how this may support presentation and revision</li> <li>• Explore, discuss and understand how Read&amp;Write can help them with other reading and writing tasks</li> </ul>
Preparation Required:	Teacher should select a current topic, theme or news story relative to their current unit of work in advance and use this as the content for the activity. Pupils will be responsible for researching this task. Class may use the topic from activity 1. Ensure Read&Write is installed on all machines and circulate activity sheets either electronically or physically.

CM ,1992      Secondary Textbook Review ,1988 This book is intended as a resource for teachers and curriculum developers who select textbooks for secondary English courses It includes a compilation of 32 factual textbook reviews obtained from the application of a review instrument which was based on the California Model Curriculum Standards Grades Nine through Twelve English Language Arts and the English Language Arts Framework for California Public Schools Kindergarten through Grade Twelve The instrument described in the book was applied to selected English composition grammar and reading literature textbooks The book suggests that the resulting reviews can be used by teachers as a screening device to reduce the number of books they review and pilot studies they conduct thus educators will have more time to do in depth reviews of two or three textbooks which appear to match their course requirements and their students academic needs The book also states that the review instrument can be adapted by districts to reflect their own English objectives and test results Every review in the book includes two parts and a publisher s description which appears in the Appendix a section which depicts the extent to which the emphasis on content and process is given to each of the topics in the textbooks reviewed and a section which includes topics on content and processes which might be found only in teachers editions The book does not make assessments regarding the quality of the books reviewed but rather provides information which teachers may find useful in making quality judgments and selecting specific textbooks for English programs SR
