People Power in an Era of Global Crisis Barry K. Gills, Kevin Gray, 2013-10-31 A quarter of a century has now passed since the historic popular uprising that led to the overthrow of the Ferdinand Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines The mass movement known as the People Power Revolution was not only pivotal to the democratic transition within the Philippines but it also became an inspiration for subsequent mass movements leading to further democratic transitions throughout the Third World and in the former Communist bloc in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union However the neoliberal economic policies subsequently pursued by newly democratic governments throughout the Third World led all but the most celebratory observers to note the constrained and limited nature of these formal political transitions This volume poses the question of the extent to which people power has been able to play an active role resisting neoliberalism and deepen substantive democracy and social justice Through a series of case studies of the regions and individual countries of Asia Africa Latin America and Eastern Europe the contributions in the volume provide a new set of original and in depth critical assessments of the nature of the longer term impact of the democratic transitions

Africa Asia and Latin America By comparing the experiences of these regions over time this book explains the position of democracy in the Third World at the start of the 21st century Democratization and the Protection of Human Rights in Africa Brendalyn P. Ambrose, 1995-08-24 Development was achieved in the West by capitalism and industrialization before liberal democracy was introduced as a viable form of government Africa is grappling with the problems of underdevelopment Yet the West insists on liberal democracy for Africa a form of government which has no economic and social foundations in Africa The West now faults the African people for not being able to establish and sustain democratic institutions Ambrose an African development practitioner who recently returning from the continent after three intense years of fact finding research and consultation argues that the solution to Africa s problems does not lie in externally imposed liberal institutions shored up by top down bureaucracy that most often is ignorant unresponsive or outright hostile to the needs of the impoverished majority Her investigations lead her to believe that the solution for Africa lies in a collective approach based on empowerment of the masses and economic reforms
