In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West. In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West. Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China. This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation: Bai Hua, Gao Xiaosheng, Liu Shaotang, writers of the Red Guard generation, Li Rui, Wang Anyi, Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others. Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories, major themes and artistic characteristics. In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works, a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese, works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English. Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible, this book will be of interest to students and scholars.
