Dunning,2022-09-01 No artist critic or art historian disputes the importance of recording how and why our conceptions and methods of depicting pictorial space have changed from ancient to modern times and yet no previous book has provided a comprehensive history centered around these changing images of pictorial space and the ways in which their evolution reflects ideological changes in society Dunning traces the two thousand year evolution of the conception and the depiction of space in European primarily Italian and French and American painting Unraveling one illusory image after another into their particular elements he explains the development of new styles and images in painting as a continuous rearrangement of these basic elements Following this progression through the Greco Roman period the Italian Renaissance impressionism and the end of modern art the author concludes with today s postmodern concentration on linguistic aspects in painting a change from the former emphasis on space and illusion Changing Images of Pictorial Space with over forty illustrations will be of interest to a wide audience from art historians painters and art educators to general readers who wish to understand more about one of the central organizing principles in all schools and periods of art

Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division,1987      Degas Maurice Guillaud,1984      Fellow Men Bridget Alsdorf,2022-07-12 Focusing on the art of Henri Fantin Latour 1836 1904 and his colleagues Gustave Courbet Edgar Degas Edouard Manet Fr d ric Bazille and Pierre Auguste Renoir Fellow Men argues for the importance of the group as a defining subject of nineteenth century French painting Through close readings of some of the most ambitious paintings of the realist and impressionist generation Bridget Alsdorf offers new insights into how French painters understood the shifting boundaries of their social world and reveals the fragile masculine bonds that made up the avant garde A dedicated realist who veered between extremes of sociability and hermetic isolation Fantin Latour painted group dynamics over the course of two decades from 1864 to 1885 This was a period of dramatic change in French history and art events like the Paris Commune and the rise and fall of impressionism raised serious doubts about the power of collectivism in art and life Fantin Latour s monumental group portraits and related works by his friends and colleagues from the 1850s through the 1880s represent varied visions of collective identity and test the limits of association as both a social and an artistic pursuit By examining the bonds and frictions that animated their social circles Fantin Latour and his cohorts developed a new pictorial language for the modern group one of fragmentation exclusion and willful withdrawal into interior space that nonetheless presented individuality as radically relational A Feast of Colour John Sillevs, Hans Verbeek, Hans Kraan, 1990 Impressionism Marc Saul Gerstein, 1989 Published for an exhibition organized by the Carnegie Museum of Art Pittsburgh and other museums Mapping Degas Roberta Crisci-Richardson, 2015-06-18 The New Art History and the Impressionist canon seem to have successfully claimed Edgar Degas as a misogynist rabid nationalist and misanthrope whose art was both masterly and experimental By analysing Degas s approach to space and his self fashioning attitude towards identity within the ambiguities of the political and artistic culture of nineteenth century France this book questions the characterisation of Degas as a right wing Frenchman and artist and will change the way in which Degas is thought about today Photographs Christie, Manson & Woods International Inc, 1996

Nineteenth-century French Studies , 1991 The New Painting, Impressionism, 1874-1886 Charles S. Moffett, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 1986 Discusses the eight exhibitions held by the French Impressionist artists and examines the history of the artistic movement Modern Arts Criticism Joann Prosykiuk, 1993 Presenting biographical background and excerpted critical assessments of important visual artists from the late 19th century to the present Modern Arts Criticism should be of interest to teachers and students of art art history design photography the humanities and architecture The book culls hundreds of critical essays from books and periodicals and presents them in one convenient source
