Dan Flavin Tiffany Bell, Michael Govan, 2004-01-01 New scholarship and interpretation of Flavin's work also appears in the form of three critical essays by experts and an extensive chronology, comprehensive bibliography and exhibition history. In addition, this book includes Flavin's text in daylight or cool white, an autobiographical sketch originally published in Artforum in 1965 and two interviews with the artist, one from 1972 and the other from 1982. BOOK JACKET Dan Flavin Dan Flavin,

Dan Flavin, Fluorescent Light, Etc Dan Flavin, National Gallery of Canada, Vancouver Art Gallery, 1969 Dan Flavin, Three Installations in Fluorescent Light Dan Flavin, Kunsthalle Köln, 1974 Dan Flavin Jeffrey Weiss, 2006-01-01 In making light his primary medium, Dan Flavin (1933-1996) established himself as one of the most innovative and significant artists of the minimalist movement. A new generation encountered Flavin's work through the critically acclaimed exhibition Dan Flavin: A Retrospective, which opened in October 2004 at the National Gallery of Art, Washington. Dan Flavin: New Light includes essays that respond to this exhibition and to the renewed interest in Flavin's work and its place in 20th-century art. In this volume, six leading scholars of contemporary art consider the ambiguities and multiple resonances of Flavin's light works. Each addresses the ontological complexity of the work object based yet situational and painterly in its deployment of colored light within the insistently sculptural world of minimalism. The book's contributors interpret this tension by exploring Flavin's early assemblages, the relationship of drawing to his installation practice, the specificity of his materials and their operation in actual space, and the openly ambivalent place of Flavin's work within the history of late modernism. Also available from Yale University Press: DAN FLAVIN: A RETROSPECTIVE ISBN 0 300 10632 7 DAN FLAVIN: THE COMPLETE LIGHTS ISBN 0 300 10633 5 Dan Flavin: Series and Progressions Dan Flavin, 2015-08-25 Described by fellow artist Mel Bochner as one of the first artists to make use of a basically progressional procedure, influential Minimalist artist Dan Flavin was known for his systematic arrangement of color and light. This major monograph was published on the occasion of Dan Flavin: Series and Progressions, the first exhibition of the artist's work held in 2009 at David Zwirner in New York, since the gallery announced its representation of Dan Flavin. Featuring over fifty full-color plates of exemplary works made between 1963 and 1990, in addition to a comprehensive selection of installation views, archival photographs, and documents, this publication carefully examines Flavin's use of progressions and serial structures, ideas that were central to his practice throughout his career. It also describes how his manipulations of color and light were aspects of his work that not only led to it being characterized as Minimal art but came to define and influence conceptual artistic practices. Dan Flavin: Series and Progressions includes new scholarship by noted Flavin scholar and curator Tiffany Bell, author of the artist's catalogue raisonné, Anne Rorimer, Richard Shiff, and Alexandra Whitney; an interview with Dan Graham; and a facsimile of the original catalogue from Flavin's 1967-1968 exhibition alternating pink and gold at the Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago. Additional context is provided by a detailed illustrated chronology which documents historical exhibitions of Flavin's work. Dan Flavin, 2004 Dan Flavin Isabelle

Dan Flavin: Rediscovery of Light Natalia Spektor, 2012-07-19 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Other grade 2.0 University of Cologne Englisches Seminar language English abstract In 1957 Flavin began to experiment with drawing and fashioning hybrid collages and assemblages mostly made with found materials Four years later he created the first of eight icons boxy monochrome painted constructions outfitted with incandescent bulbs and short fluorescent tubes wall hung objects which are neither painting nor sculpture and which represent his first use of light He worked on icons consistently for three years constructing the objects by using hand tools and then painting them Dispensing altogether with the traditional materials of painting and sculpture Dan Flavin adopted common commercially available fluorescent light as the primary medium for his art He preferred standardised utilitarian fluorescent light to custom designed showy neon As Michael Govan notes Flavin confined himself to a limited palette red blue green pink yellow ultraviolet and four different whites and form straight two four six and eight foot tubes see 2004 II 19 In most cases Flavin named his works as untitled but often added a dedication Furthermore he used lower case for inscription except for proper names and places Many of his works have the same or similar titles Further with the diagonal of May 25 1963 Dan Flavin established a system as he himself called it which is a structured whole and whose parts are replaceable Flavin 1965 24 To understand his system and oeuvre as a whole a special attention should be paid to the following questions Why did Flavin choose light as a medium for his works How did he understand and define the phenomenon of light Which influences were significant for Dan Flavin's art and why Why did he choose exactly an icon and later the diagonal as a form of representation for his first light works Which ideas meanings and principles are veiled in his works What was new in Flavin's rediscovery of light To answer these questions and to consider the significance of his artistic work in the art historical context Dan Flavin's oeuvre and the development of his artistic style will be analysed through his key works with fluorescent light from different periods of time

Dan Flavin, Lumière Fluorescente, Etc. Dan Flavin,1969 Dan Flavin Dan Flavin,Jeffrey Weiss,2008 This book examines a seminal early exhibition of work by Dan Flavin that took place in 1964 at New York's influential though short lived Green Gallery This exhibition was groundbreaking not only in terms of its presentation of radically innovative work that used commercially available colored fluorescent light but also because it marked a turning point in Flavins career The Green Gallery show was the first exhibition in which the artist presented only fluorescent light pieces and it included such important works as the diagonal of May 25 1963 to Robert Rosenblum 1963 a primary picture 1964 and the nominal three to William of Ockham 1963 It marked the development of the minimalist language of illumination that would characterize Flavins influential work until his death in 1996 and is therefore considered by many to be one of the key gallery exhibitions of the 1960s Dan Flavin The 1964 Green Gallery exhibition includes new scholarship on this important body of work by Jeffrey Weiss Director of the Dia Art Foundation New York The publication documents the original show with rare archival photographs and reproductions of the early critical reviews and responses to Flavins fluorescent light works and includes a selection of recently commissioned statements by artists and critics who saw the exhibition in 1964 The book also contains new color plates that document each of the works from the exhibition in addition to a selection of drawings which show the development of Flavins ideas about these works and their original installation
