Accetturo,2003-11 Highly informative yet fun to read On Becoming Human describes the long journey of humankind from the dawn of prehistory to the space age In the first half of each chapter fact based scenarios describe the cultural era while the second half is in a question and answer format derived from the first part It truly reads like a novel though being soundly based on anthropology and history What makes this book so intriguing is the style in which the information is presented Niehoff begins each chapter with a story which describes a fictional group of pre people at a given time in prehistory These stories outline the day to day struggles that were required for survival and add a tremendous amount of color to what might have been a dry delivery of facts and dates Following the fictional scenarios Niehoff uses a question and answer format to delve further into the subject adds details and explains how such vivid portrayals can be discerned from such limited data In the introduction Niehoff writes he set out to create a book that is intriguing informative and fun In my opinion he hit the mark James Hitchcock Battle Creek Shopper News Woman's Home Companion ,1922 The Annals of Improbable Research ,2001
