King, Mev Miller, 2009-02-01 This unique volume of writings by educators in the field working with women's literacy reveals the many ways in which addressing women's empowerment through literacy continues to impact lives. Not only are teachers and learners in adult basic education ABE literacy and English language learning ELL classes affected but also those who value and support women's learning and equity and education for social change. Revelations: More than half of the 3.6 million students in adult basic literacy education ABE programs across the U.S. are women. Sticht 2001 Research outlines many barriers for women pursuing basic education and literacy and recommends using woman-positive approaches. Sheard 1994 However, there exists little research on how educational systems and policies, instructional materials and pedagogical practices best support the literacy and educational achievement of women literacy learners. Writings and curriculum by individual educators outline and describe innovative activities programs focused specifically on the needs of women learners. Cuban, Hayes, Miller, Young, how to empower women through literacy and current research-based practice. From Belize to Australia, Brazil to Germany and USA to Turkey, the voices of women engaged in empowerment are awaiting you through these pages. Literacy can change lives; how can we better reach those who desire this empowerment? Join us, we explore the breadth of vision and knowledge captured within this groundbreaking volume. The Editors Dr. Mev Miller and Dr. Kathleen P. King are co-editors of this volume within the Adult Education Series of Information Age Publishing. Mev Miller is the founder and director of WE LEARN, headquartered in Cranston, RI, www.litwomen.org. Kathy King is a professor of adult education at Fordham University's Graduate School of Education in New York City. They and 45 other contributors join together in this volume to celebrate the unheralded capacity of literacy's empowerment in women's lives.      Children in Prison Jerome Gold, 2019-05-30 Almost 330,000 children in America are in prison, in a detention center, on probation or parole or otherwise under the control of the criminal justice system. In a time of nascent prison reform, these children are often left out of the conversation. This book chronicles the experiences of six young people in Ash Meadow in Washington State. Written from the perspective of a prison rehabilitation counselor, this book provides a firsthand account of these children's lives during and after their stay. These accounts show how domestic violence, inequality and poor adult modeling influence the decisions that children make later in life.      An Inmate's Daughter Janet D. Walker, 2006 During the summer between seventh and eighth grades, Jenna, her mother and her little brother move in with her grandparents while her father is in a Washington State prison. But as Jenna tries to fit in and make friends, it becomes increasingly difficult to comply with her mother's demands for secrecy.      American Book Publishing Record, 2004      Criminal Justice Review, 2006      Pacific Northwest Quarterly, 2003      The Illustrated London News, 1857      India International Centre Quarterly India International Centre, 2007
