William Henry Goss

Daniel Diary The:

River of Death--The Chickamauga Campaign William Glenn Robertson, 2018-10-03 The Battle of Chickamauga was the third bloodiest of the American Civil War and the only major Confederate victory in the conflict's western theater. It pitted Braxton Bragg's Army of Tennessee against William S. Rosecrans's Army of the Cumberland and resulted in more than 34,500 casualties. In this first volume of an authoritative two-volume history of the Chickamauga Campaign, William Glenn Robertson provides a richly detailed narrative of military operations in southeastern and eastern Tennessee as two armies prepared to meet along the River of Death. Robertson tracks the two opposing armies from July 1863 through Bragg's strategic decision to abandon Chattanooga on September 9. Drawing on all relevant primary and secondary sources, Robertson devotes special attention to the personalities and thinking of the opposing generals and their staffs. He also sheds new light on the role of railroads on operations in these landlocked battlegrounds as well as the intelligence gathered and used by both sides. Delving deep into the strategic machinations, maneuvers, and smaller clashes that led to the bloody events of September 19-20, 1863, Robertson reveals that the road to Chickamauga was as consequential as the unfolding of the battle itself. The Nazis

Among Us Patrick Phair, 2025-05-15 With the end of World War II, several notorious concentration camp perpetrators during the Holocaust attempt to avoid capture from the Allies by hiding in plain sight. Decades later, the Nazi subterfuge rears its ugly head during a murder investigation in an American small town nursing home. The dogged determination by the only detective on the Oakwood Police Department and his quirky but brilliant consultant reveal the horrible legacy of the Nazi regime. The Nazis Among Us covers several generations and is a reminder that prejudice, bigotry, and anti-Semitism have taken hold in present times and they must be rooted out. About the Author: Patrick Phair was born and raised in Wisconsin and graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh with an undergraduate degree in English, followed by an MA in creative writing from Minnesota State University. An educator for nearly forty years, Phair now concentrates on writing; this being his third novel. Previous works include Two Flags for Marco and The Exchange. He has had three plays produced and scores of poems published. He lives with his wife Mary in Appleton, Wisconsin. Richmond College Historical Papers, 1915

The Forgotten Room Chris Auer, 2010-08-10 Many secrets come to light when twelve-year-old Dan Pruitt comes across the blueprints to Eckert House. He's certain he's found a hidden room. But when he and his friends set out to find it, they uncover more than a room. What they find will ultimately lead to danger: how will they keep their secret safe and protect themselves too? Essays on the Awareness of Loss in Contemporary Albanian Literature Voices that Come from the Abyss is the first scholarly monograph on the concept of loss in Albanian poetry and life writing of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. It represents the first academic contribution to an international audience dedicated to three women writers that personified loss in communist Albania and two eminent poets who wrote representative and outstanding poetry on the meaning of loss in

Albanian literature Through the work of these three politically persecuted women writers and two modern poets this book analyzes loss in relation to pain grief memory death freedom and love inquiring on the meeting point between life writing and poetry and the point where they part ways The book explores the work of Musine Kokalari the first Albanian woman writer and political dissident Bedi Pipa the first woman known to have authored a diary in Albanian literature Drita Lomaj author of a diary and poetry written in secret in political exile under communism Fatos Arapi the Albanian poet who has been awarded the most important international literary prize to date and who has elaborated on the ethical implications of freedom grief and death in relation to personal loss Ali Podrimja a cornerstone of contemporary Albanian poetry author of a volume that marked a definite turn to modernity in Albanian poetry in the Republic of Kosovo and to date one of the best volumes of poetry written in the history of Albanian literature Lum Lumi where he explores the depth of grief pain loss and love The works of these five authors bring forth the necessity to re visit the history of Albanian literature and promote interdisciplinary and comparative studies beyond Albanian literature Shatro studies the unique traits of their life writing the specific link between different literary genres and the exceptional capacity of poetry to carry loss to the point of articulating the unsaid thus giving a voice to silence She argues that through diary memoir epistolary and poetry all five authors provide different views of loss and its challenging ethical implications in relation to death memory and freedom

American Colonial Spaces in the Philippines Scott Kirsch, 2023-02-15 American Colonial Spaces in the Philippines tells the story of U S colonialists who attempted in the first decades of the twentieth century to build an enduring American empire in the Philippines through the production of space From concrete interventions in infrastructure urban planning and built environments to more abstract projects of mapping and territorialization the book traces the efforts of U S Insular Government agents to make space for empire in the Philippines through forms of territory map landscape and road and how these spaces were understood as solutions to problems of colonial rule Through the lens of space the book offers an original history of a highly transformative but largely misunderstood or forgotten imperial moment when the Philippine archipelago made up of thousands of islands and an ethnically and religiously diverse population of more than seven million became the unlikely primary setting for U S experimentation with formal colonial governance Telling that story around key figures including Cameron Forbes Daniel Burnham Dean Worcester and William Howard Taft the book provides distinctive chapters dedicated to spaces of territory sovereignty maps knowledge landscape aesthetics and roads circulation suggesting new and integrative historical geographical approaches This book will be of interest to students of Cultural Historical and Political Geography American History American Studies Philippine Studies Southeast Asia Philippines Asian Studies as well as general readers interested in these areas The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
