Migration has been a basic fact of Nepali life for centuries Over the last thirty years migration from Nepal has increased diaspora communities across the world In these diverse contexts to what extent do Nepalis reproduce their culture and pass it on to subsequent generations How much of diaspora life is a response to social and political concerns derived from the homeland What aspects of Nepali life and culture change In this volume twenty one authors address these issues through eighteen detailed case studies that tackle issues of livelihood identity and belonging internal conflict and religious practice in the UK the USA India Southeast Asia the Gulf countries and Fiji Throughout the volume we see how being Nepali outside Nepal enables new categories and new kinds of identity to emerge whether as Nepali Gorkhali or as a member of a particular ethnic regional or religious group The common theme of Global Nepal is the exploration of continuity change and conflict as new practices and identities develop in Nepali diaspora life exponentially leading to many new      Dalits in the New Millennium, Report of the Proceedings of International Conference on Dalit Human Rights, Shri Guru Ravidass Community Centre, London 16-17 September, 2000 ,2000

Contributed papers presented at a seminar with reference to India      Ethnographic Discourse of the Other Panchanan Mohanty, Ramesh C. Malik, Eswarappa Kasi, 2008

This book primarily tries to bring out the analogy between the conceptual and methodological discourses on the theme of the other The term Other here refers to the oppressed sections of the society It may be dalits women indigenous or ethnic communities Since we are living in a multicultural and multilingual society we should share our views with others on a platform where issues of the marginalized people are addressed by different scholars following different methods and techniques Though there are various policies and plans for the welfare of the downtrodden hardly any change can be seen at the micro level structure of the society There are studies which highlighted the problems and ethos of the downtrodden sections but a majority of those studies neglected the marginalized groups Hence we felt the need to highlight the issues and concerns of these groups in a wider context and started thinking on the theme Ethnographic Discourse of the Other Conceptual and Methodological Issues This volume attempts to discuss and theorize the pragmatic concepts and issues related to the marginalized groups in contemporary societies in South Asia This book is interdisciplinary in nature and will be useful to scholars and students of Anthropology Sociology Linguistics Social Work Culture Studies Gender Studies and Philosophy It is widely applicable to all sections of the oppressed socially economically culturally academically politically and other wise      Problems and Challenges of Single Women (widows) in Nepal ,2006      NGO, Civil Society, and Government in Nepal ,2001 Contributed articles      The Political Sociology of Dalit Assertion Prakash Louis,2003 The book attempts to identity the factors which respond against the age old bondage of diverse and varied discriminations and exploitations and build the Dalit Assertion for emancipation and determine the path for liberation
