Dance With Death:

The Dance with Death William Herman (Author of The dance of death),1877 A Dance With Death Amanda Linsmeier,2026-01-27 He laces his fingers into my hair and slowly draws me in his powerful hand gently threaded into the wet strands I whimper from fear more so than pain It doesn't hurt But each word is enunciated as he warns Do Not Ever Steal From Me Again Corliss Bell would do anything to bring her older sister Aven back to life She'd give up her dreams of being a professional ballerina She'd resign herself to never leaving the small seaside town of The Pins Hell she'd even make a deal with a demon After all demons are masters of death When a town mystic tells Corliss there's a demon living nearby who may be the key in returning Aven to life she's emboldened by the idea of getting her beloved sister back Corliss sneaks into the demon's dilapidated mansion to beg for his help But instead of finding him she discovers a pair of enchanted red ballet slippers and steals them The demon comes to reclaim what is his but finds Corliss and the slippers hopelessly intertwined He imprisons her in his mansion forcing her to dance for him every evening as punishment for stealing Far from a helpless captive Corliss begins working out a plan to bring Aven back to life as soon as she can convince the demon Orrin to help her Hauntingly beautiful with lush prose and a vividly creepy atmosphere A Dance With Death is a compulsively juicy read that will wind its way into your psyche Part horror part magic this is the gothic love story you didn't know you were missing
