Educational provides a biographical sketch of English journalist and novelist Daniel Defoe 1660 1731 whose novels include Robinson Crusoe 1719 Captain Jack 1722 and Moll Flanders 1722 Defoe also wrote numerous political pamphlets and is considered to be the founder of British journalism      Selected Writings of Daniel Defoe James T. Boulton,1975-05-08 Paradoxically Daniel Defoe is diminished by his popularity as the author of a handful of important novels since the remainder of his voluminous writings suffer undue neglect Fully to understand him he should be taken whole but his authorship of over

500 publications renders this feat well nigh impossible The purpose of this selection then is to enable the reader to make or renew the acquaintance of Defoe on some of his favourite topics such as trade and politics manners and morality in poetry as well as prose and in works like A True Relation of the Apparition of One Mrs Veal and Memoirs of a Cavalier which are characteristic blends of fact and fiction Equipped with the insights possible from this sample the reader it is hoped will return to the major novels with a keener appreciation of their distinctive quality and a livelier sense of their author
