Life Among Urban Planners Jennifer Mack,Michael Herzfeld,2020-06-26 A collection of ethnographic case studies of urban planners and their practices Urban planners project the future of cities As experts they draft visions of places and times that do not yet exist prescribing the tools to be used to achieve those visions Their choices can determine how a city will merge its public transit and automobile traffic or how it will meet a demand for thousands of new dwelling units as quickly and with as little avoidable damage as possible Life Among Urban Planners considers planning professionals in relation to the social contexts in which they operate the planning office the construction site and even in the confrontations with those affected by their work What roles do planners have in shaping the daily practices of urban life How do they employ manipulate and alter their expertise to meet the demands asked of them The essays in this volume emphasize planners cultural values and personal assumptions and critically examine what their persistent commitment to thinking about the future means for the ways in which people live in the present and preserve the past Life Among Urban Planners explores the practices and politics of professional city making in a wide selection of geographical areas spanning five continents Cases include but are not limited to Bangkok Bogot Chicago Naimey Rome Siem Reap Stockholm and Warsaw Examining the issues raised around questions of expertise participation and the tension between market and state forces contributors demonstrate how certain planning practices accentuate their specific relationship to a place while others are represented to a global audience as potentially universal solutions In presenting detailed and intimate portraits of the everyday lives of planners the volume offers key insights into how the city interacts with the world Contributors Margaret Crawford Ad le Esposito Trevor Goldsmith Mark Graham Michael Herzfeld James Holston Gabriella K rling Jennifer Mack Andrew Newman Lissa Nordin Bruce O Neill Kevin Lewis O Neill Federico P rez Monika Szel Interpreting Our World Joseph J.
