Disclosures From A Compulsory Interview:

Disclosures from a Compulsory Interview Doina Virginia Vladuca, James K. McCollum, 2003-02 Toward a Prosecutor for the European Union Volume 1 Katalin Ligeti, 2012-12-17 In an era in which the EU's influence in criminal law matters has expanded rapidly attention has recently turned to the possible creation of a European Public Prosecutor's Office This two volume work presents the results of a study carried out by a group of European criminal law experts in 2010-2012 with the financial support of the EU Commission whose aims were to examine in detail current public prosecution systems in the Member States and to scrutinise proposals for a new European office Volume 1 begins with thorough descriptions of 20 different national legal systems of investigation and prosecution addressing a range of evidential and procedural safeguards These will serve as a point of reference for all future research on public prosecutors Volume 1 also contains a series of cross cutting studies of the key issues that will inform debates about the creation of a European Public Prosecutor's Office including studies of vertical cooperation in administrative investigations in subsidy and competition cases the accession of the EU to the ECHR judicial control in cooperation in criminal matters mutual recognition and decentralised enforcement of European competition law Volume 2 which will be published in 2013 presents a draft set of model rules for the procedure of the European Public Prosecutor's Office and continues with a set of comparative studies of the national legal systems that cover the gathering of evidence seizure of assets arrests tracking and tracing prosecution measures procedural safeguards the presumption of innocence and the right to silence access to the file and victim reconciliation Volume 2 concludes with the final report written by Professor Ligeti summarising the findings of the group and reporting on the prospects for the proposed reform Reports of Selected Cases Decided in Courts of the State of New York Other Than the Court of Appeals and the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court New York (State). Courts, 1997 Doping in Sport and the Law Ulrich Haas, Deborah Healey, 2016-09-22 This unique international legal and cross disciplinary edited volume contains analysis of the legal impact of doping regulation by eminent and well known experts in the legal fields of sports doping regulation and diverse legal fields which are intrinsically important areas for consideration in the sports doping landscape These are thoughtful extended reflections by experts on theory and policy and how they interact with law in the context of doping in sport It is the first book to examine the topical and contentious area of sports doping from a variety of different but very relevant legal perspectives which impact the stakeholders in sport at both professional and grass roots levels The World Anti Doping Code contains an unusual mix of public and private regulation which is of more general interest and fully explored in this work Each of the 14 chapters addresses doping regulation from a legal perspective such as tort corporate governance employment law human rights law or a scientific area Legal areas are generally considered from an international and not national perspective Issues including fairness logic and the likelihood of compliance are explored It is vital reading for anyone interested in the law regulation and governance of sport Criminal Procedure and Sentencing Peter

Hungerford-Welch,2014-03-05 Criminal Procedure Sentencing provides a comprehensive engaging and up to date guide to each step of criminal procedure from the arrest of the suspect through to trial sentencing and appeals Taking a strong practical focus throughout it covers all aspects of the criminal justice system and sentencing and has been thoroughly revised and updated in the light of changes to the funding of legal aid and widespread changes to the legal system The 8th edition focuses on a thorough explanation of the law and offers a clear and comprehensive account of amendments to the Criminal Procedure Rules and the implications of the Legal Aid Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 as well as recent case law The author also considers alternatives to prosecution as well as important developments in sentencing including the creation of the Sentencing Council by the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 and recent key Court of Appeal decisions affecting sentencing procedure and sentencing principles The author s authoritative yet engaging writing style brings the subject to life and helps to explain complex issues in an easy to understand way With a helpful glossary as well as suggestions for further reading at the end of each chapter this is an ideal text for anyone with an interest in the criminal justice system The supporting website offers readers access to regular updates to the law but also a comprehensive set of web links and advice on additional reading and research for those seeking to engage in critical evaluation of the criminal justice system

Disclosure in Criminal Proceedings John Niblett,1997 This book deals not only with disclosure of the prosecution case matters relating to the character and credibility of prosecution witnesses but includes a chapter on how disclosure is dealt with in other jurisdictions

Multinational Enterprises and the Law Peter Muchlinski,2021-02-18 Multinational Enterprises and the Law is the only comprehensive contemporary and interdisciplinary account of the techniques used to regulate multinational enterprises MNEs at the national regional and multilateral levels In addition it considers the effects of corporate self regulation and the impact of civil society and community groups upon the development of the legal order in this area The book has been thoroughly revised and updated for this third edition making it a definitive reference work for students researchers and practitioners of international economic law business corporate and commercial law development studies and international politics Split into four parts the book first deals with the conceptual basis for MNE regulation It explains the growth of MNEs their business and legal forms and the relationship between them and the effects of a globalized economy and society now increasingly challenged by recently revived nationalist economic policies upon the evolution of regulatory agendas in the field In addition the limits of national and regional jurisdiction over MNE activities are considered a question that arises throughout the specialized areas of regulation covered in the remainder of the book Part II covers the main areas of economic regulation including controls over and the liberalization of entry and establishment tax company and competition law and the impact of intellectual property rights on technology diffusion and transfer A specialized chapter on the regulation of multinational banks in the wake of the global financial crisis is new to this edition Part III introduces the social dimension of MNE regulation covering labour rights human rights and environmental issues

Finally Part IV deals with the contribution of international investment law to MNE regulation and to the control of investment risks covering the main provisions found in international investment agreements their interpretation by international tribunals the process of investor state arbitration and how concerns over these developments are leading to reform proposals
