Basic Issues in Great Lakes Research, 1987 Urgent Tasks, 1977 Monthly Report [United States District] Devoted Exclusively to the Interests of Its Members, Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners, 1924 The World's Work, 1920 Future Survey Annual, 1993 Gender, Growth, and Poverty Reduction, C. Mark Blackden, Chitra Bhanu, 1999. Annotation: Comparison between Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA) and East Asia indicates that gender inequality in education and employment is estimated to have reduced SSA's per capita growth in the 1960-92 period by 0.8 percentage points per year. Therefore, reducing gender-based asset inequality in SSA is an important development goal. This report documents the structural role of men and women in African economies and examines the linkages between the market and the household. It makes a convincing case that reducing gender inequality would increase growth efficiency and welfare. The authors make key recommendations for public policy intervention in the areas of participation, investment in the household economy, investment in human capital, support for rural livelihood strategies, and engendering statistics and poverty monitoring.
