Dismantling Privilege An Ethics Of Accountability:

Dismantling Privilege: Mary Elizabeth Hobgood, 2009-05-01 Mary Elizabeth Hobgood's bestselling Dismantling Privilege An Ethics of Accountability reminds us the categories of gender race and class are not biological givens but social constructs used to suppress some groups while giving power to others diminishing the lives of all humankind and forestalling the possibility of a better society Hobgood's proposed solution a politics of accountability and solidarity resonates throughout this new edition which also includes a fresh introduction updated statistics and a concluding chapter targeting ecological crisis as the most pressing concern for accountable disciples Additionally the book looks to the political stirrings in Africa and Latin America for inspiration in building the movement

Dismantling Privilege Mary E. Hobgood, 2000 Class and race are often assumed to be natural biologically determined categories when in fact they are social constructs Together with gender these distinctions are perpetuated and exploited by the most powerful social group white male elites to maintain their privilege Christian ethicist Mary Elizabeth Hobgood addresses these dynamics not only because they are unjust but because they create isolation and spiritual impoverishment and promote cultural values that do harm to everyone irrespective of class race or gender In Dismantling Privilege she identifies an ethical agenda for elites and seeks to persuade them that an agenda of justice and an ethics of accountability will be of primary benefit to them The solution Hobgood asserts is a politics of solidarity grounded in the realization that no one is free until all are free Distributed by Syndetics Solutions LLC

Born Apart, Becoming One: Disciples Defeating Racism , Resisting Structural Evil Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda, 2013-02-22 Ecojustice social justice and the Christian conscience This is a grand prophetic book motivated by love and focused on justice social justice ecological justice and dignity for the least of these Don't miss it Cornel West Union Theological Seminary This book is a gift to all consumers looking for a way out of their addiction Those of us myself included who know our excessive consumption is causing ecological and economic disasters should read Professor Moe Lobeda's new book It is the best one volume analysis of our moral dilemma I know of and even better it suggests principles and practices to help deal with it Sallie McFague Vancouver School of Theology Cynthia Moe Lobeda's Resisting Structural Evil Love as Ecological and Economic Transformation takes the form of a powerful contribution to Christian ethics but in fact it is also a major contribution to anyone in any religious or spiritual tradition who seeks to maintain both a commitment to God and to global healing and transformation Easily accessible and charming in presentation deep in its ability to confront difficult issues squarely and in a nuanced way courageous in insisting that we see reality not only as it is but as it could be if we were willing to be unrealistic for a few moments manifesting daring of thought combined with a pervasive humility this is a true classic of spiritual progressive consciousness packed full of ideas that should be taught in every college and university and religious seminary every church synagogue mosque and ashram Rabbi Michael Lerner Editor Tikkun Magazine Chair The Network of Spiritual Progressives Cynthia Moe Lobeda's book is one of the strongest statements yet to be made on the intricate connections between ecology and justice The powerful stories and persuasive arguments lay the groundwork for the necessary transformations ahead It will be a catalyst for change Mary Evelyn Tucker Forum on Religion and Ecology Yale University Key Features Mapping the ethical terrain of an imperiled planet Convincingly showing how ecojustice relates to economic justice Rethinking Christian ethics in light of the ecological crisis The increasingly pressing situation of Planet Earth poses urgent ethical questions for Christians But as Cynthia Moe Lobeda argues the future of the earth is not simply a matter of protecting species and habitats but of rethinking the very meaning of Christian ethics The earth crisis cannot be understood apart from the larger human crisis economic equity social values and human purpose are bound up with the planet's survival In a sense she says the whole earth is a moral community Reorienting Christian ethics from its usual anthropocentrism to an ecocentrism entails a new framework that Moe Lobeda lays out in her first chapters culminating in a creative rethinking of how it is that we understand morally With this moral epistemology in place she unfolds her notion of moral vision and applies it to the present situation in a full fledged earth honoring justice seeking Christian ethical stance

Caring Democracy Joan C. Tronto, 2013-04-12 Americans now face a caring deficit there are simply too many demands on people's time for us to care adequately for our children elderly people and ourselves At the same time political involvement in the United States is at an all time low and although political life should help us to care better people see caring as unsupported by public life and deem the concerns of politics as remote from their lives Caring Democracy argues that we need to rethink American democracy as well as our fundamental values and commitments from a caring perspective The idea that production and economic life are the most important political and human concerns ignores the reality that caring for ourselves and others should be the highest value that shapes how we view the economy politics and institutions such as schools and the family Care is at the center of our human lives but Tronto argues it is currently too far removed from the concerns of politics Caring Democracy traces the reasons for this disconnection and argues for the need to make care not economics the central concern of democratic political life Joan C Tronto is a Professor in the Political Science Department at the University of Minnesota She is the author of Moral Boundaries A Political Argument for an Ethic of Care Routledge

Studies in Religion, 2004 Mother Jones, 2002 One Aryan Nation Under God Jerome Walters, 2000 What do racial extremists believe about God religion and their own place in the world How should the Christian church respond to these beliefs Drawing on his own experiences as a minister in an area of Montana where extremist groups are active Jerome Walters provides an in depth look at such groups in the United States and at the theological ideas undergirding their beliefs He reveals that many of these groups have at their core the belief that Adam and Eve gave birth to the white race while nonwhite races were the progeny of Eve and the serpent From this belief emanate all the controversial issues that attract media coverage Unlike other exposes however One Nation Under God goes beyond simply explaining the beliefs of these groups It provides an antidote by giving practical steps Christians can take to counter the overt and covert acts of racial extremists The Economic Injustice of Maternal Mortality Eileen Kerwin Jones, 2008 Economic Injustice of Maternal Mortality A Feminist Ethical Analysis

A Grammar of the Common Good Patrick Riordan, 2008-08-26 Patrick Riordan's timely study analyzes the concept of the common good in light of recent heightened interest in globalization Normativity of the Future Reimund Bieringer, 2010 One of the major issues of contemporary theology is the relationship between the past and the present Many see the task of theology as the re interpretation of past traditions for today This focus pays scant attention to the future In recent years theological inquiry into the future and eschatology is surfacing In the past ten years we have developed an eschatological hermeneutics for the interpretation of biblical and other authoritative texts This hermeneutical approach integrates the past present and future dimensions of the interpretive process paying special attention to the future The first part of this book consists of three foundational articles by Reimund Bieringer and Mary Elsbernd about the approach which we have come to call normativity of the future In this part we provide the theoretical foundations of this eschatological hermeneutics The second part of this book contains contributions by Reimund Bieringer Mary Elsbernd Susan M Garthwaite Ma Marilou Ibita Didier Pollefeyt Rolando Tuazon and Thomas A Vollmer who practice this approach in the arenas of Biblical Exegesis Ethics and Religious Education Leadership Through Story Sarah J. Noonan, Thomas L. Fish, 2007 Stories ancient as life itself and deeply embedded within family and cultural traditions transmit knowledge and shared meaning linking people together in a human chain of history and memory Leadership through Story offers a way for leaders and members followers to understand and experience the way a powerful story when shared with others serves as both a catalyst and vehicle to accomplish leadership Leaders and members tell stories to achieve goals experience compassion manage change solve problems and or promote social justice in democratic communities To utilize stories to their fullest leaders need to be aware of how the mutual exchange of stories and the meaning created from this exchange promotes the changes we seek within and among us Listening to diverse voices and locating turning points in dialogue places where we are influenced and changed by others inspires moral imagination and commitment altering our lives together In this way storytelling and dialogue serve as a foundation for personal and social transformation as well as cultural survivance in human communities Injustice and the Care of Souls Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, Karen Brown Montagno, 2009 Pastoral care is often focused on individual problems but much of what harms and impedes us stems from the larger social maladies at work in our lives This unprecedented gathering of two dozen essays discusses the realities of racism sexism heterosexism ageism ableism and classism prevalent within the church and society in an effort to broaden and inform pastoral caregivers with the knowledge and the skills needed to respond effectively to oppressed and marginalized persons The volumes also help pastors to reflect on the ways their own social location has an impact on their ministries and to gain familiarity with resources available to support pastoral caregivers in a variety of contexts Journal of School Leadership, 2006
