Daughtering And Mothering Female Subjectivity Reanalysed:

Daughtering and Mothering Janneke van Mens-Verhulst, Karlein Schreurs, Liesbeth Woertman, 1993 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Daughtering and Mothering K. M. G. Schreurs, 2019-10-02 This book provides analyses of many aspects of mother daughter relationships starting from the premise that daughters and mothers both take an active part in shaping their relationship It discusses contextual issues examining women s roles in therapy management and education New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers LaToya Jefferson-James, 2022-03-03 New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers is a collection of critical and pedagogical essays that shed new light on the creative depths of Black women writers On the one hand some Black women writers have been heavily anthologized they have more often than not been restricted by critical metanarratives Some of their works have been lionized while others remain neglected On the other hand some Black women writers have been ignored and understudied This collection corrects the gaps in our critical thinking about Black women writers by introducing them to a new generation of undergraduate and graduate students and by presenting pedagogical essays to our colleagues currently working in the field American Journal of Psychotherapy, 1947 Italian Women's Autobiographical Writings in the Twentieth Century Ursula Fanning, 2017-09-07 This book highlights the centrality of the autobiographical enterprise to Italian women s writing through the twentieth century a century that has frequently been referred to as the century of the self Ursula Fanning addresses the thorny issue of essentialism potentially involved in underlining links between women s writing and autobiographical modes and ultimately rejects it in favor of an argument based on the cultural linguistic and literary marginalization of women writers within the Italian context It is concerned with Italian women writers various ways of grappling with constructions of subjectivity throughout the century and sets out to explore them Fanning reads autobiographical writing as subject to many of the same constraints as fiction and in doing so draws attention to the significance of the recurring use of the terms pure and impure in many critical and theoretical discussions of the autobiographical where pure is used to suggest a truthful representation of a life while impure suggests the messy undertaking of mixing lived experience with fiction Recurring patterns and paradigms are found in the works of the various writers considered eighteen in all and these paradigms are analyzed through close readings of their works These close readings offer insights into approaches to the constructions of subjectivity in the narratives and are informed by feminist theories The chapters focus on selves in relationship taking their lead from the patterns unfolding in the writers work hence the subjects are constructed as daughters with different views of the self in relation to fathers and mothers within the confines of the romantic relationship which involves reconsiderations and rewritings of the romance plot as maternal subjects and as writers with an eye on their relationship to the literary canon as well as to the relationship with readers This book argues that there is such a thing as gendered subjectivity and that its constructions may be traced through the texts analyzed Mothers of Adult Children Marguerite Guzman Bouvard, 2013-09-12 Mothers of Adult Children elucidates what happens when children come of age and leave home creating new lives in the realms of work and relationships Mothers from around the world learn that this is the point in which their relationships with their children must drastically change Mothers often come to terms with the changes by accepting differences and providing moral and emotional support when needed However the evolutionary nature of mothers roles throughout the course of their children s lives is not only determined by the mother child dynamic The mothering of adult children is a transformative role and the stories presented here show that the dynamics between mother and child are also influenced by cultural events Accidents disasters war and other hardships also intervene in these stories of multicultural motherhood This book reveals the problems mothers of adult children face and celebrates the outstanding accomplishments of those who mother through hardship Mothers and Daughters Alice H. Deakins, Rebecca Bryant Lockridge, Helen M.

 Sterk, 2012-06-21 Family stories of the ties between mothers and daughters form the foundation of Mothers and Daughters Complicated Connections Across Cultures Nationally and internationally known feminist scholars frame analyze and explore mother daughter bonds in this collection of essays Cultures from around the world are mined for insights which reveal historical generational ethnic political religious and social class differences This book focuses on the tenacity of the connection between mothers and daughters impediments to a strong connection and practices of good communication Mothers and Daughters will interest those studying communication women s studies psychology sociology anthropology counseling and cultural studies Feminism & Psychotherapy I Bruna Seu, M Colleen Heenan, 1998-05-21 Feminism and Psychotherapy deconstructs the theory and practice of feminist therapy in contemporary society and challenges the view that one model of therapy or one model of feminism can be elevated above all others On the Adaptation to Motherhood Nancy Dolin Dietrich, 2003 母性論 母性論, 2007 20 Mothers and Daughters in Medieval German Literature Ann Marie Rasmussen, 1997-09 Drawing on the themes of current feminist thought the author explores several examples of German literature and poetry to show how fictional mother daughter characters played out the contradictions of the social and sexual conflicts in medieval society Women Studies Abstracts , 1994 Feminism and Psychoanalysis , 2001 Each bibliography includes a comprehensive list of the theorist s works and critical studies of these works in English Each bibliography contains approximately 600 to 900 entries Books journal articles essays within edited books in the manner of Essay and General Literature and dissertations are included References are provided from a wide variety of disciplines and bibliographic sources The primary purpose of each bibliography is to provide access to the widely reprinted primary works in English and the critical literature in a great variety of books and journals The topical bibliographies include the authoritative works on the subject and are arranged in useful categories The lively part of the modern post modern debate is generally taking place in alternative and left journals journals always included in the literature search in the compiling of the bibliographies Mother Love/mother Hate Rozsika Parker,1995 Many a loving mother has had fleeting feelings of hatred toward her children the desire to hurl a howling baby out the window or to lock a teenager out of the house In this provocative book Rozsika Parker argues that these ambivalent feelings not only are common but can actually have a creative impact on mothering Mother Love Mother Hate boldly illustrates how a mother s desire for devotion coexists with the impulse to hurt and desert Parents will find Parker s insight into the conflicts that beset them illuminating and deeply reassuring Reversing the conventional psychoanalytic approach in which maternal ambivalence has been understood chiefly from the point of view of the child this book gives precedence to the mother s perspective Drawing on interviews with mothers clinical material from her practice as a psychoanalytic psychotherapist and a wide range of psychoanalytic and literary sources including Virginia Woolf Anne Tyler Simone de Beauvoir D W Winnicott Melanie Klein and John Bowlby Parker explores experiences of maternal ambivalence in a culture painfully and profoundly uneasy about its very existence

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Feminisms on Edge Dr. Karen Atkinson,Sarah Oerton,Gill Plain,2000 The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson Joanne Winning,2000 Pilgrimage Dorothy Richardson s thirteen volume opus of autobiographical fiction follows the entire arc of an independent woman s life in early twentieth century Britain It is one of the major works of the modernist period indeed it is considered by many a classic of modernist literature In this book Joanne Winning argues in this book however that Richardson s novels continue to be misunderstood in several important ways Winning is the first critic to fully explore the issues of lesbian identity in the novels Examining primary materials manuscript drafts and Richardson s previously unstudied correspondence Winning demonstrates that Pilgrimage contains a carefully constructed though concealed subtext of lesbian desire and sexuality The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson explores the ways in which Richardson used such cultural forms as sexology psychoanalysis and other lesbian and modernist literature of her time to create an intertextual dialogue about lesbian identity Winning suggests that a sustained reading of lesbian sexuality in Pilgrimage is crucial to a more complete understanding of Richardson s long and sometimes difficult work Winning also places Pilgrimage in the context of other works by female modernist writers that record lesbian identity This approach Winning suggests is the first step toward recognizing and defining a literary movement that can be termed lesbian modernism as well as toward a deeper understanding of how lesbian modernist writers helped shape modernist literature as a whole Psychology in Society ,1997 Feminist Periodicals ,1993 Contesting Francoist Domestic Ideology Danielle P.
