David Jones Christine Pagnouille, 1987 Christine Pagnouille's commentary provides a detailed study of eight among David Jones's more accessible poems those pieces in fact which he reluctantly detached from his work in progress and released for publication between 1955 and his death in 1974 It elucidates difficult passages relates them to his other works whether poems essays or drawings and shows how David Jones's vision of the world in the middle of our century bears on our present concerns While developing original interpretations this commentary also integrates previous critical approaches into a comprehensive overview It will thus be welcome reading for specialists of David Jones's poetry and will also be of interest to those readers who are discovering or still have to discover his work David Jones Christine Pagnouille, 1978

Recharting the Thirties Patrick J. Quinn, 1996 The aim of Recharting the Thirties is to revitalize the awareness of the reading public with regard to eighteen writers whose books have been largely ignored by publishers and scholars since their major works first appeared in the thirties The selection is not based on a political agenda but encompasses a wide and divergent range of philosophies clearly the contrasts between Empson and Upward or between Powell and Slater indicated the wide ranging vision of the period Women writers of the period have largely been marginalized and the writings of Sackville West and Burdekin for example not only present distinct feminine voices of the period but also illuminate how much good literature has been forgotten English Poetry Since 1940 Neil Corcoran, 2014-07-15 Neil Corcoran's book is a major survey and interpretation of modern British poetry since 1940 offering a wealth of insights into poets and their work and placing them in a broader context of poetic dialogue and cultural exchange The book is organised into five main parts beginning with a consideration of the late Modernism of T S Eliot and W H Auden and ranging decade by decade from the poetry of the Second World War and the New Romanticism of Dylan Thomas to the Movement the poetry of Northern Ireland the variety of contemporary women's poetry and the diversity of the contemporary scene The book will be especially useful for students as it includes detailed and lively readings of works by such poets as Ted Hughes Seamus Heaney and Philip Larkin David Jones, Artist and Poet Paul Hills, 1997 This work encompasses the life and work of the artist and poet David Jones who also illustrated his own writings David Jones, Man and Poet John Matthias, 1989 Swinging the Maelstrom Sherrill Grace, 1992 Swinging the Maelstrom is a collection of new critical essays on the work and life of Malcolm Lowry 1909-1957 An international group of literary critics and artists examines a wide range of Lowry's work from the diverse perspectives of biography correspondence translation manuscript editing poetry and inter artistic comparison including a number of investigations of his masterpiece Under the Volcano and his post Volcano fiction The Poetry Review, 1987 The Poetry Review Stephen Phillips, Galloway Kyle, Harold Monroe, 1987 Stand Magazine, 1990 A Bibliographical Guide to Twenty-four Modern Anglo-Welsh Writers John Harris, Edward John Davies, 1994 This is the most detailed guide in existence to a significant portion of the now extensive English language literature of Wales Two dozen major writers who are generally associated with the Anglo Welsh literary renaissance are covered here Some like Dylan Thomas are internationally known figures who have been the subject of bibliographies in these cases the treatment here is the most up to date and comprehensive yet published Others less well known outside Wales are given full bibliographical treatment for the first time The volume will therefore be indispensable to students and teachers of literature in English at all levels The bibliography lists publications by and about each chosen writer Primary sections record the writer s monographic output in all editions and translations as well as uncollected contributions to books periodicals and newspapers Secondary lists include critical and biographical studies of each writer independent monographs sections of books periodical essays and academic theses Two important sections preface the individual author bibliographies one covering anthologies of Anglo Welsh poetry and prose the other a range of general critical and background studies In all this bibliography with close on 6 000 selectively annotated entries provides an indispensable reference guide to a developing area of literary and cultural research

Poetry Wales ,1989-06    PN Review ,1987    The Hunt David Annwn,1998    Writers H - Z. Daniel Lane Kirkpatrick,1991    David Jones on Religion, Politics, and Culture David Jones,2018-06-28 David Jones author of In Parenthesis the great poem of World War I is increasingly recognized as a major voice in the first generation of British modernist writers Acclaimed by the likes of T S Eliot W B Yeats and W H Auden his writing was deeply informed by his Catholic faith and Welsh blood This book makes available for the first time a number of previously unpublished statements by Jones that open new perspectives on his own work and the religious political and cultural engagements of British modernism more broadly Annotated throughout with detailed commentaries exploring the historical context of each document the volume presents the restored text of Jones s essay on Hitler and includes a letter to Neville Chamberlain an unfinished essay on Gerard Manley Hopkins and the transcript of an interview with Jones a year before his death These reveal an unknown side of Jones and give fresh insight into the influences and assumptions of 20th century British literary culture

Anglo-American Studies ,1989    Bibliography of Wales ,1989    Poetry, Publishing, and Visual Culture from Late Modernism to the Twenty-first Century Natalie Pollard,2020-05-27 This is a book about contemporary literary and artistic entanglements word and image media and materiality inscription and illustration It proposes a vulnerable fugitive mode of reading poetry which defies disciplinary categorisations embracing the open endedness and provisionality of forms This manifests itself interactively in the six case studies which have been chosen for their distinctness and diversity across the long twentieth century the book begins with the early twentieth century work of writer and artist Djuna Barnes exploring her re animation of sculptural and dramatic sources It then turns to the late modernist artist and poet David Jones considering his use of the graphic and plastic arts in The Anathemata and next to the underappreciated mid century poet F T Prince whose work uncannily re activates Michelangelo s poetry and sculpture The second half of the book explores the collaborations of the canonical poet Ted Hughes with the publisher and artist Leonard Baskin during the 1970s the innovative late twentieth century poetry of Denise Riley who uses page space and embodied sound as a form of address and finally the contemporary poet Paul Muldoon who has collaborated with photographers and artists as well as ventriloquising nonhuman phenomena The resulting unique study offers contemporary writers and readers a new understanding of literary artistic and nonhuman practices and shows the cultural importance of engaging with their messy co dependencies The book challenges critical methodologies that make a sharp division between the textual work and the extra literary and raises urgent questions about the status and autonomy of art and its social role      Book Review Index ,1987 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
