Data Analysis For Comparative Social Research International Perspectives:

Data Analysis for Comparative Social Research Chikio Hayashi,1992 Data Analysis for Comparative Social Research Chikio Hayashi,Tatsuzō Suzuki,Masamichi S. Sasaki,1992 This book aims to provide methods for cross national and trend social surveys using in part trend survey data accumulated since 1953 For social science research however the book is written quite differently from the usual or conventional style The approach is the so called grounded theory approach Concrete problems are analysed according to the data using exploratory and detective ways of thinking and methods of analysis An experiential method is used to clarify things which were not previously understood through conventional methods The book also provides accurate understanding for those who tend to understand the Japanese way of thinking through the cross national perspective Values and Attitudes Across Nations and Times Masamichi S. Sasaki,1998 The pursuit of knowledge is of necessity both a comparative and an interdisciplinary enterprise The authors of this volume drawn from divers areas of social studies present a unique position on the continuum of comparative science from the pursuit of qualitative to quantitative knowledge Taking values and attitudes separately and in combination and comparing them across nations and time the works contained in this study identify a matrix of nine possible themes And while no single article addresses all nine of the themes taken as a whole they have covered all of them and even suggested new and interesting avenues for further research In developing their thoughts on cross national and cross cultural comparisons the comparative scientific continuum has come full circle in the contributions of the authors presented here Social Change in the Age of Globalization Tiankui Jing,Masamichi Sasaki,Peilin Li,2006-08-01 The 36th World Congress of the International Institute of Sociology IIS was a true milestone in the history of IIS for it heralded many firsts the first World Congress to be held on the Asian Continent the first to be held in China and the largest attendance by far of any of the organization s World Congresses This book is a compendium of 18 papers presented by plenary speakers from 10 different nations It addresses sweeping issues related to the age of globalization and social change including cultural diversities migration and equality social transformation and national identity Notable is an extraordinary diversity of viewpoints approaches and opinions Social Change in the Age of Globalization should be especially useful for those interested in learning more about social change in the context of globalization especially in nations whose sociological communities are emerging such as China and many other Asian nations Trends and Perspectives in Empirical Social Research Ingwer Bork,Peter Ph Mohler,1994 On the 20th anniversary of the establishment of ZUMA the Center for Survey Research and Methodology in Mannheim Germany contributors associated with the center or leading in their field trace developments in their field of expertise outline the current state of the art and point the way to future developments The volume includes chapters on social indicators nationwide general social surveys cognitive and communicative aspects of survey measurement official census data computer assisted interviews sampling statistics and measurement facet theory causal modeling attitude measurement multilevel
