The Classicist ,2000      Inventing the New American House Stuart Cohen,2015-04-14 Howard Van Doren Shaw designed stately country houses in and around Chicago from affluent Lake Forest Illinois and Lake Geneva Wisconsin to Iowa Minnesota Ohio and Indiana from 1894 to 1926 a period in American architecture that spanned the Gilded Age the adoption of Beaux Arts classicism as the ideal for civic architecture the invention of the skyscraper and the beginning of modernism Born in 1869 he worked for the leading industrialists of that period including Reuben H Donnelley of printing fame newspaper giant Joseph Medill Patterson Edward Forster Swift the meatpacking king and Edward L Ryerson of Ryerson Steel A contemporary of Frank Lloyd Wright Shaw explored many of the same ideas as the Prairie School Architects within the forms of traditional architecture Though he was recognized as one of the leading country house architects of the early twentieth century his name was largely forgotten after his death Like many traditional architects practicing today Shaw was skilled at adapting historic precedents to suit contemporary living in particular the easy flow of interior space that became a design hallmark of the period for traditionalists and modernists alike For the new and fashionable suburb of Lake Forest Shaw created Market Square the town center which was lauded for its design as both a unique town green and the first American shopping center designed to accommodate automobiles This timely reappraisal of Howard Van Doren Shaw s work features many previously unpublished images from the Shaw Archive in the Burnham and Ryerson Library at the Art Institute of Chicago and the Chicago History Museum rare construction drawings and new color photography as well as a catalogue of Shaw s residential work His legacy includes substantial houses in prosperous communities many of which are still standing including Ragdale once Shaw s own summer house in Lake Forest now home to the prestigious artists community the Becker Estate on Chicago s North Shore and The Hermann House overlooking Lake Michigan Classic Country Estates of Lake

Jr., 2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates American Architects from the First World War to the Present Lawrence Wodehouse, 1977 The Standard , 1916 The Western Architect , 1922
