David Solway Essays On His Works:

David Solway Carmine Starnino,2001 In recent years David Solway s groundbreaking trio of critical books have earned him a reputation as a thinker and prose writer of considerable erudition He now emerges into the 21st century as a Canadian poet of major stature Burdens of Proof Susanna Egan,2011-04-20 Autobiographical impostures once they come to light appear to us as outrageous scandalous They confuse lived and textual identity the person in the world and the character in the text and call into question what we believe what we doubt and how we receive information In the process they tell us a lot about cultural norms and anxieties Burdens of Proof Faith Doubt and Identity in Autobiography examines a broad range of impostures in the United States Canada and Europe and asks about each one Why this particular imposture Why here and now Susanna Egan s historical survey of texts from early Christendom to the nineteenth century provides an understanding of the author in relation to the text and shows how plagiarism and other false claims have not always been regarded as the frauds we consider them today She then explores the role of the media in the creation of much contemporary imposture examining in particular the cases of Jumana Hanna Norma Khouri and James Frey The book also addresses ethnic imposture deliberate fictions plagiarism and ghostwriting all of which raise moral legal historical and cultural issues Egan concludes the volume with an examination of how historiography and law failed to support the identities of European Jews during World War II creating sufficient instability in Jewish identity and doubt about Jewish wartime experience that the impostor could step in This textual erasure of the Jews of Europe and the refashioning of their experiences in fraudulent texts are examples of imposture as an outcrop of extreme identity crisis The first to examine these issues in North America and Europe Burdens of Proof will be of interest to scholars of life writing and cultural studies The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod,Ian Hamilton,2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry

An Echo in the Mountains Nicholas Bradley,2020-09-23 From the 1960s until his death in 2000 Al Purdy was one of the most prominent writers in Canada famous for his frank language and his boisterous personality He travelled the country and wrote about its people and places from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island A central figure in the CanLit explosion of the sixties and seventies Purdy has been called the best the most and the last Canadian poet But Purdy s Canada no longer exists A changing country and shifting attitudes toward Canadian literature demand new perspectives on Purdy s impact and accomplishments An Echo in the Mountains reassesses Purdy s works the shape of his career and his literary legacy grappling with the question of how to read Purdy today a century after his birth and in a new era of Canadian literature Contributors to the volume examine Purdy s critical reception explore little known documents and textual problems and analyze his representations of Canadian history and Indigenous peoples and cultures They show that much remains to be discovered and understood about the poet and his immense body of work The first sustained examination of Al Purdy's works in over a decade An Echo in the Mountains showcases the critical challenges and rewards of rereading an iconic and influential Canadian writer The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 2005 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 The Malahat Review, 2003 Profoundly Superficial David Solway, 2025-10-07 David Solway is one of this generation's leading chroniclers and one of its most penetrating analysts and humorists In this collection of timely elegantly written and often strikingly astute essays Solway's moral imperatives are the foundations of each chapter With a broad pallet of subjects that he works like some epistolary Chagall or Mondrian Solway juggles these items with finesse snobby artists abusing art on the public dole Donald Trump Feminists Hockey Stephen Hawking the ins and outs of being in and out of academic philosophy the corruption and collapse of western academics the viciously biased and inaccurate fake media coverage of Israel and the false compassion of the political left just to name a few A realist and pragmatist Solway relies on his excellent eye for detail his insightful thinking process and his gift with words and stories to present this important and entertaining collection of prose with some prose about poetry too for good measure You will be challenged and entertained and you'll learn some things as well David Solway is a rare writer with exceptional authorial and observational skills The result is a very special collection of essays that will stay in your thoughts long after the last page is devoured Quill & Quire, 2007 Rampike, 2000

Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Language Acts Jason Camlot, Todd Swift, 2007 Language Acts brings together twenty provocative essays on the state of English language poetry in Quebec since 1976 Born and raised during this historically resonant period of Trudeauism organized Quebecois nationalism language legislation and profound demographic and cultural change Anglo Quebec poetry has come of age in the 21st century as a literature with its own distinct arguments about itself and its own poetical acts in language Language Acts features essays on many important even canonical figures such as Robert Allen Anne Carson Leonard Cohen Louis Dudek D G Jones Irving Layton Michael Harris Erin Mour David McGimpsey Robyn Sarah and Peter Van Toorn and on a wide range of poetry activities including those of the Vehicule Poets and the Montreal Spoken Word scene This is the first critical collection of its kind to appear in over forty years and will set the terms used to discuss English language poetry in Quebec for years to come Canadian Books in Print, 2003

The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
