Work and Quality of Life Nora P. Reilly,M. Joseph Sirgy,C. Allen Gorman,2012-05-31 Employees have personal responsibilities as well as responsibilities to their employers They also have rights In order to maintain their well being employees need opportunities to resolve conflicting obligations Employees are often torn between the ethical obligations to fulfill both their work and non work roles to respect and be respected by their employers and coworkers to be responsible to the organization while the organization is reciprocally responsible to them to be afforded some degree of autonomy at work while attending to collaborative goals to work within a climate of mutual employee management trust and to voice opinions about work policies processes and conditions without fear of retribution Humanistic organizations can recognize conflicts created by the work environment and provide opportunities to resolve or minimize them This handbook empirically documents the dilemmas that result from responsibility based conflicts The book is organized by sources of dilemmas that fall into three major categories individual organizational internal policies and procedures and cultural social forces external to the organization including an introduction and a final integration of the many ways in which organizations can contribute to positive employee health and well being This book is aimed at both academicians and practitioners who are interested in how interventions that stem from industrial and organizational psychology may address ethical dilemmas commonly faced by employees

Working From Home. A Consideration Of The Effectiveness, Practicalities And Psychological Outcomes Maria Clarisa Pascual,2021-08-25 Seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject Psychology Work Business Organisation grade 1 0 language English abstract This study examined the effectiveness practicalities and psychological outcomes of working from home Since the pandemic hit the world in 2020 there were a lot of changes that needed to be implemented especially in the Philippines One of the most affected was the workforce There were people who needed to go physically to work like the health workers and other front liners For some government offices they needed to continue working but because the transportation was suspended many transformed their physical offices to virtual offices and meant that employees would need to work from home
