 Anthropocene Reimagining Education in the Twenty First Century reimagines the education of future generations in our complex society Carl A Maida argues we are living in an era of transition that has been repeatedly called an age of acceleration and in this time of crisis diverse constituencies will need to coalesce and create place based arenas for critical inquiry and reflection around biodiversity energy and sustainability concerns Education is therefore critical to the public sphere which is polarized by contentious debates over class ethnicity culture and more recently the fate of the planet He posits that two provinces the school and society can join together to afford students greater freedom to produce future knowledge by advancing experiential instructional approaches as humanity faces profound challenges to its existence
