Handbook of Digital Innovation, Transformation, and Sustainable Development in a Post-Pandemic Era M. Affan Badar, Ruchika

Gupta, Priyank Srivastava, Imran Ali, Elizabeth A. Cudney, 2024-12-30 Businesses have faced a variety of difficulties as a result of the global pandemic and how they responded to this disruption has affected both their resilience and their ability to get through this crisis. Digital technologies have played a crucial role in addressing these issues and fostering resilience. It is therefore imperative to explore options for post pandemic business transformation and rethinking sustainable development. Handbook of Digital Innovation Transformation and Sustainable Development in a Post Pandemic Era covers digital innovation and business transformation to build resilience for sustainable development and growth and highlights the impact of supply chain disruptions and solutions to sustain. The handbook stands out for its inclusion of industry cases from various regions across the globe. By presenting the use of big data, blockchain technology and Industry 4.0, the handbook conveys how to work towards sustainable development and offers self-reliant and sustainable business models. Researchers and practitioners in industrial engineering, engineering management, business management, supply chain management and digital technologies along with businesses can apply the research and practices covered in the handbook. Chapters 3 and 14 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0) license. Apocalypse Canceled: How to Separate Fact from Fear in the Age of Smart Machines Dizzy Davidson, 2025-08-05 If you worry that AI will steal your job or if you're tired of doom and gloom headlines or if you feel overwhelmed by conflicting tech jargon, then this book is for you. Why Intelligent Tech Won't Destroy Us and How You Can Ride the AI Wave to a Better Tomorrow. Over the past few decades, governments have engineered a wave of reforms in their public systems, opening them to privatisation and commercialisation. In public education systems, competition, choice and autonomy have become entrenched vectors of these reforms. This edited collection carefully examines the difference between privatisation and commercialisation and traces the varying effects privatised and commercialised policy reforms have had in different educational contexts. Many countries have approached the thorny issues of school choice and school autonomy in different ways and this book investigates the impact of these agendas across the USA, UK, Australia, New Zealand, parts of Europe, sub

Saharan Africa and India This book brings together contemporary international perspectives from high profile policy academics on both privatisation and commercialisation in public education systems under the provocation of how the public nature of schooling is changing This is essential reading for those interested in the idea that current education policy reforms are reshaping what might be considered core educational practices in public schooling Proceedings of The 23rd
