Conversations With My Elders:

Conversations with My Elders Boze Hadleigh, 1989 Contains interviews with six acknowledged gay cinema artists that highlight their careers and lifestyles Conversations with My Elders Kopano Kalvyn More, 2019 The Mong Oral Tradition Yer J. Thao, 2015-03-26 In 1975 after years of struggle Communists seized control of the government of Laos Members of the Mong culture who had helped the U S Central Intelligence Agency in their quest to halt the spread of Communism were forced to move to America as political refugees The Mong with their strong culture of oral traditions and beliefs were plunged into a multicultural society where the written word was prevalent As a result their oral customs are now being slowly eroded and replaced with a written tradition Desperate to hold on to their cultural identity and continue the traditions of their ancestors the Mong still struggle with the dilemma this change in literary perception has caused Compiled from numerous interviews this volume explores the lives of 13 Mong elders With emphasis on their unique oral tradition and cultural practices the book discusses Mong rituals tribal customs religious beliefs and educational experiences The main focus of the work however is the lifestyle the elders maintained while living in the mountains of Laos In their own words they describe their childhood communities religious rituals and cultural traditions as well as the ongoing struggle of adjustment to their new homeland The work also delves into the Mong perceptions of industrialization and the generational conflict that immersion into a literate society has caused The author himself is a member of the Mong culture and brings a personal perspective to preserving the oral traditions of this unique ethnicity The work is also indexed The Standard ,1916

Elder Voices Daniel F. Detzner, 2004-01-05 More than a quarter of a century has passed since the first Southeast Asian refugees arrived in this country but because of their age and formidable language barriers many elders have difficulty making their voices heard Language barriers family privacy and social isolation have made it almost impossible for their experiences to be shared outside the family and community Elder Voices helps to understand the family life of Vietnamese Cambodian Lao and Hmong refugees from the perspective of the oldest generation Their stories are composed of complex family narratives that help us understand the ways in which migration and resettlement processes are experienced The forty life histories of Southeast Asian elders gathered for this study collectively reveal personal perspectives on new immigrant family adaptation to American life at the end of the twentieth century This volume is a great resource for anyone interested in Southeast Asian families in America Conversations with Gabriel García Márquez Gabriel García Márquez, 2006 Starts with Gabriel Garcia Marquez s years of early phenomenal success He speaks of his impoverished childhood life as an indifferent student his apprenticeship as a journalist the inspiration that led to the writing of his most celebrated novel the difficulties brought about by fame and his leftist opinions and leanings Imaginary conversations. Third series : Conversations of literary men (First series) Walter Savage Landor, 1876 Works and Life: Imag. conversations: ser. 3 : Conversations of literary men. 1876 Walter Savage Landor, 1876 Conversing with the Great Russian Elders various

Imaginary conversations* Walter Savage Landor, 1853 Bulletin of the Drama Teachers' Association of California, 1929 Live Fast, Die Young Lawrence Frascella, Al Weisel, 2006-11-07 The complete story behind the groundbreaking film Rebel Without a Cause is vividly revealed in this fascinating book as provocative as the film itself The revolutionary film Rebel Without a Cause has had a profound impact on both moviemaking and youth culture since its 1955 release virtually giving birth to our concept of the American teenager And the making of the movie was just as explosive for those involved Against a backdrop of the Atomic Age and an old Hollywood studio system on the verge of collapse four of Hollywood's most passionate artists had a cataclysmic and immensely influential meeting James Dean Natalie Wood Sal Mineo and director Nicholas Ray were each at a crucial point in their careers The young actors were grappling with their fame burgeoning sexuality and increasingly reckless behavior and their on and off set relationships ignited as they engaged in Ray's vision of physical melees and psychosexual seductions of startling intensity Through interviews with the surviving members of the cast and crew and firsthand access to both personal and studio archives the authors reveal Rebel's true drama the director's affair with sixteen year old Wood his tempestuous spiritual marriage with Dean and his role in awakening the latent sexuality of Mineo who would become the first gay teenager to appear on film This searing account of the upheaval the four artists experienced in the wake of Rebel is complete with thirty photographs including ten never before seen photos by famed Dean photographer Dennis Stock The American Journal of Clinical Medicine, 1923 Harper's Bazaar, 1928 Back-trailers from the Middle Border Hamlin Garland, 1928 The Canadian Magazine J. Gordon Mowat, John Alexander Cooper, Newton MacTavish, 1912
