In-service Training Program in Beginning Shorthand and Transcription George Watto,1963 Dating Apps, Modern Romance, and Social Inequality Hannah Regan,2025-12-11 How do we fall in love in the 21st century In Dating Apps Modern Romance and Social Inequality Hannah Regan explores the impact dating apps have had on how we meet potential partners and decide who to date In particular Regan considers our tendency to fall in love with people who are very similar to us and how dating apps both facilitate this preference and challenge us to think outside the box By sharing the stories of dating app users the book raises important questions about how social inequality exists in our intimate lives and how technology reinforces these long held social beliefs This book situates current patterns of dating and relationships within the historical context of courtship to explore how the introduction of new technology has changed romantic partnerships Despite these new possibilities the analysis encourages us to question whether dating is in fact changing or whether we are simply enacting the same old social patterns in new ways Challenging the assumptions which shape dating preferences in turn challenges the social structures of power and inequality which underlie them

Centering Indigenous Standpoints through Mediated Communication Ben R. LaPoe, Victoria L. LaPoe, 2025-12-11

Centering Indigenous Standpoints through Mediated Communication explores how different forms of Indigenous media including social media are significant advocacy and educational methods of resistance against repeated attempts at genocide erasure misrepresentation vilification forced assimilation and stereotyping perpetuated by colonial systems Ben R LaPoe II and Victoria L LaPoe argue that unlike mainstream media operating under settler principles Indigenous media privileges Indigenous life experiences emphasizes Indigenous contexts honors Indigenous social customs amplifies Indigenous voices and incorporates Indigenous worldviews The book introduces readers to these intersections of Indigenous knowledge and explores the ways in which narrative advocacy empowers and benefits those who communicate their own voices and experiences Through a multi method approach and analyses of Indigenous social media posts through the framework of Indigenous Standpoint Theory IST the authors identify Indigenous advocacy renovation efforts on mainstream social media platforms and demonstrate how different platforms can impact communities and act as a form of source sovereignty Ultimately the results of these analyses position IST as a key approach to supporting the decolonization of knowledge and advocacy in media spaces
