We Can Teach That Ewa Dziedzic-Elliott,2024-11-28 Information literacy is a complex subject that finally arrived at the doorstep of school libraries For decades academic researchers have been trying to capture the essence of information literacy its educational cognitive and civic value The collection of book chapters offered in We Can Teach That is a handbook that can be used as an inspiration for teaching various types of literacy visual digital multicultural health and more The book asks important questions When do we start teaching information literacy How do we teach it How does it affect our students at their education level How does it prepare them for their post high school adult life Does it impact their transition to college or career Dziedzic Elliott and her collaborators provide a range of best practices and concepts that inspire thinking about teaching information literacy at all levels Although written with school librarians in mind the book can be easily adapted by teachers school administrators and even public librarians who are looking to incorporate information literacy elements in their daily practices The book challenges the reader to rethink what they know about digital or tech literacy breaks some stereotypical concepts about multicultural literacy and highlights the importance of literacies even in adulthood

Artificial Intelligence in Architecture Matias del Campo, 2024-05-13 Artificial intelligence AI applications in architectural design have achieved a critical mass and exploded into the mainstream of architectural imaginations From practical applications in design and construction to the implications for architectural theory to a plethora of novel tools for accelerated morphological studies what has become clear is that the discipline is passing a threshold that fundamentally changes architecture as a whole However the most radical change is the interrogation and novel discussion of authorship and agency in design ecologies driven by synthetic imaginations What does it mean for authorship when more than 50 per cent of the content is generated by a nonhuman player This issue seems more pressing than ever In a world that is being transformed by AI on a daily basis what is the role of the sole genius and designers artists and architects This AD dives deep into current discussions about the human position in architectural design which is increasingly entangled in an AI driven design context Contributors Cesare Battelli Phil Bernstein Mario Carpo Benjamin Ennemoser and Ingrid Mayrhofer Hufnagl Sarah Fox Wanyu He Andrew Kudless Ryan Vincent Manning Sandra Manninger Kyle Steinfeld Andrew Witt and Michael Young
