Thinking with Shakespeare William Poole, 2017-12-02 Shakespeares works do not embody any doctrine or set of beliefs as his critics have long been tempted to suggest but they do stage encounters with certain kinds of thinking ethical political epistemological even metaphysical that still concern us nowadays They can be shown to draw on ancient philosophies Platonism Stoicism Scepticism either directly or through medieval and continental Renaissance thought Or their scenarios can be likened to those of other kinds of intellectual argument such as legal or theological discourse The essays collected in this volume demonstrate the value of thinking with Shakespeare either as embodied in Shakespeares own creative programme or in our use of philosophical paradigms as an approach to his works The contributors are Colin Burrow Terence Cave Gabriel Josipovici Charles Martindale Stephen Medcalf Subha Mukherji A D Nuttall and N K Sugimura Comedy in Literature and Popular Culture James V. Morrison, 2024-12-23 Comedy in Literature and Popular Culture From Aristophanes to Saturday Night Live explores works of comedy from the past 2 500 years James V Morrison discusses works including those of Aristophanes and Plautus Shakespeare and Moliere and modern comic writers performers and cartoonists such as Thomas Nast P G Wodehouse Charlie Chaplin and Jerry Seinfeld asking the following questions Is comedy a mirror of our lives Is it funny cuz it s true Or is it funny because it ignores reality Should we distinguish between the plot of a comic play and the jokes found in it Are the jokes just there to make us laugh or are the jokes as essential as the plot Do memories of satirical portrayals on the comic stage displace recollections of the historical person By juxtaposing works from different cultures and time periods the book demonstrates a universal recourse to certain familiar techniques situations and characters This vibrant study offers a compelling analysis of comedy as a mode form and genre It is an engaging read for students and scholars of comparative literature literary history media studies and theater and performance Higher
