Anderson, Christine R. Farris, 2007 Judith H Anderson and Christine R Farris colleagues at Indiana University and prominent scholars in literary studies and composition respectively aim here to bridge the perceived division between the two disciplines In a spirit of curricular collaboration Integrating Literature and Writing Instruction presents an array of courses mainly for non English majors that use literature in teaching first year college students how to read write and think critically Contributors teach at a range of institutions from Research I and large state universities to small selective colleges and use different classroom approaches some highly participatory and others combining lectures with small group work Divided into three groups representing humanities core courses courses that focus on literature and courses that focus on cultural issues in relation to literature the essays explore the use of a variety of literary texts from Shakespeare s sonnets to historical novels to detective fiction Contributors offer imaginative assignments and innovative pedagogical techniques that can be adapted profitably in multiple courses and institutional contexts The concluding section narrates the collaborative development of a course on language metaphor and textuality which the editors offer as a successful model of what literature and writing instruction can accomplish together Resources in Education , 1996 CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1995 Gail Stygall, Kathleen Murphy, 1999-08 Published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication this bibliography provides an annual listing of scholarship on written English and teaching at the college level Entries appear under six major categories Bibliographies and Checklists Theory and Research Teacher Education Administration and Social Roles Curriculum Testing Measurement and Evaluation Listservs Electronic Resources and WWW Sites This volume lists and annotates nearly two thousand articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1995 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter As usual the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication s contents and are intended to help users determine the entry s usefulness Annotations are brief and are not meant to be descriptive or evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work s merits Some of the main topics are self explanatory while others require some explanation Bibliographies and Checklists are clear enough but Theory and Research may not be These entries discuss concepts or hypotheses explain how people learn describe fields or methodologies examine historical developments review previous explanations of a subject or advance conclusions drawn from empirical evidence Teacher Education Administration and Social Roles obviously covers the education of teachers and administrative and personnel policies this topic also deals with services supporting classroom instruction and relations between educational institutions and the larger society Listservs Electronic Resources and WWW Sites deals with the Internet s electronic discussion groups interested in theory and practice in composition and rhetoric     Monographic Series Library of Congress,1982     Official Documents, Comprising the Department and Other Reports Made to the Governor, Senate, and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania Pennsylvania,1899     Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1983     Système-D 4.0 Frank Dominguez,James S.
