AI in Marketing Hannah D. Walters, Rachel M. Hammond, 2025-06-24. AI in Marketing equips students with the knowledge to understand the impact of Artificial Intelligence (AI) on marketing strategies, processes, and activities, empowering them to navigate the AI-driven marketing landscape confidently. Divided into four parts, it provides a comprehensive exploration of AI's transformative role in marketing. The first part lays the groundwork, offering foundational insights into the intersection of AI and marketing. Part II explores the various applications of AI in marketing and the tools marketers use to optimize their processes and deliver enhanced customer experiences. The third part focuses on leveraging AI for consumer insights, enabling marketers to craft data-driven strategies. The final part examines ethical considerations and the pedagogical integration of AI into marketing education. Each chapter includes real-world examples, exercises, discussion questions, key terms, and AI resources, empowering students to develop practical skills and industry-relevant knowledge. Students studying in advanced undergraduate and postgraduate marketing courses will benefit greatly from this comprehensive textbook, preparing them for a future workplace that requires them to know how to use AI effectively, ethically, and responsibly. The book is fully supported by online resources, including an instructor manual and customizable PowerPoint slides.

Understand Blog Content Writing Aysegul Balkose, 2021-05-17. Story It is about a story, the plot, and its characters. You, blog writers, are storytellers. Here is the twist: you are also one of the main characters. The blog has an angle for the plot and its perception of the world around it. Blog as an entity has an identity, the way of thinking and acting. It has ideas of its own. It is a great help to define these for the blog and yourself as the writer before you start chucking in your best ideas and publishing them. Blogs want to be found on Google. For this, their content should be countered on the Reader. Not everyone will use the same words to search. To search relevant content, they will use semantic words. Your job is to write content which covers these semantic search terms. The reason I am writing this book is because it would make me feel so happy if I can help people understand the core concepts of blog writing. This was a struggle for me when I started writing blogs. I believe that knowing a basic working structure gives
