

Four Core Facets to REMOTE WORK SUCCESS

1 COMPUTER SKILLS

Having a working understanding of the technology needed to be successful on the job including basic navigation, internet browsers, email, chat, search, and windows is crucial to remote success.

76% of workers
would be more willing to stay with their current employer if they could work flexible hours.

+1.4 days of work in additional days per month worked by remote employees compared to their in-office peers. That's 17 additional workdays a year.

2 SELF-RELIANCE

Remote workers must be able to work autonomously. They should be comfortable with isolation and possessing the self-motivation required to work and solve issues alone, without direct supervision or physical access to co-workers.

Communicating via remote means is also a key factor, as is the ability to understand and identify the subtleties of written (vs. verbal) communication.

3 PROPER WORK ENVIRONMENT

Maintaining a dedicated home/work environment that is organized, distraction-free, as well as properly connected and equipped make the transition to remote work much smoother for all.

25% less turnover
reported by companies that allow employees to work remotely for any duration, compared to those that do not.

+24% happier
and more productive as reported by those who work remotely at least once per month.

4 TIME MANAGEMENT

Staying on task without direct supervision is more than an exercise in self-control. Remote workers who can monitor oneself, prioritize, and ensure adherence to schedules are .
