Getting Skills Right Training Supply for the Green and AI Transitions Equipping Workers with the Right Skills OECD,2024-12-11 Adult learning systems are being called upon to prepare workers for major labour market shifts including the green transition and the rise of artificial intelligence AI in the workplace While initial education is important upskilling and reskilling the existing workforce is essential to help individuals and businesses adapt and prepare for these transitions Policy makers face the challenge of ensuring training is both relevant and inclusive yet there is limited understanding of whether current training supply is sufficient to meet current and future skill needs Most research focuses on the demand for skills with little insight into the supply To fill this gap this report uses evidence from new OECD questionnaires and an analysis of training catalogues to evaluate whether current training supply aligns with the skills needed for the green and AI transitions It also provides insight into the accessibility and flexibility of training efforts to guide policy makers in their efforts to develop more effective inclusive training strategies

Once I Was A Democrat Dr. Ravi Sethi PhD, MBA,2025-04-02 Our politicians are opportunistic and divisive Essentially we elect mini kings and queens who misuse and manipulate their power to stay elected perpetually We need to make sure that our elected representatives obey the true opinion of their constituents We need to bring our democracy into the new age of high technology era and introduce easy to use voting or polling tools to create a true issue based democracy not party based It will create a better checks and balances system for people The issues that affect economic health of our people should not be subjected to the vagaries of politicians The book describes the issues and the positions taken predominantly by the Democrats and Republicans as well that are not optimal for the economic health of all people excessive and unthoughtful immigration race or group based preferences complex tax system poorly implemented welfare system and little or no efforts to increase the wages income or net worth of middle and poor segments of our society The author presents solutions to some of the issues that need to be polled and voted upon by the people to decide and force their representatives to follow AI Magazine ,1992
