Generative AI in African News Media Trust Matsilele, Lungile A. Tshuma, 2025-12-16 This pioneering volume presents a comprehensive assessment of generative artificial intelligence's impact on African journalism bringing together insights from academics, technologists and practicing journalists across the continent. Featuring diverse case studies from South Africa, Nigeria, Kenya, Zimbabwe, Zambia and Eswatini, the collection explores how African newsrooms are adopting generative AI. Contributors analyse the use of AI, presenters' audience perceptions of AI-generated content, gamification strategies in newsrooms and the barriers journalists face in accessing these technologies. Painting a picture of the complex political economy of AI-driven news production and consumption, the volume also addresses ethical concerns around AI appropriation, highlighting how existing legal frameworks struggle to regulate generative AI in journalism. Positioned at the intersection of technology and African media studies, this book offers essential insights into the future of journalism across the continent. Trust Matsilele is a Senior Lecturer in Journalism at Birmingham City University UK and a Research Fellow in the Communication Department at the University of South Africa. Lungile A. Tshuma is a Researcher in the Centre for Communication and Culture, Universidade Católica Portuguesa. Tshuma is also a Senior Research Associate in the Department of Communication and Media, University of Johannesburg, South Africa.

Latin America in Books, 1988 Writing and Editing for Digital Media Brian Carroll, 2025-12-12 An essential guide to writing and editing for digital media, this sixth edition responds to the mainstreaming of genAI. Generative AI and LLMs (Large Language Models) among many other changes in the best practices of digital storytelling. Carroll explains and demonstrates how to effectively write for digital spaces and places that typically abound with graphical content, multimedia and hypertextual interactive elements. He also combines hands-on practical exercises with information on key topics such as misinformation and disinformation and the proliferation of artificial intelligence. This new edition specifically explores the ethical questions raised by AI as well as the new possibilities it presents. Each chapter features lessons and exercises through which students can build a solid understanding of the ways that digital communication provides opportunities for dynamic storytelling and multi-directional communication. It also speaks to writers, editors, public relations practitioners and social media managers and marketers. Updated with contemporary examples and new pedagogy throughout, this is the ideal handbook for students seeking careers in digital media, particularly in content development and digital storytelling. It is an essential text for students of media communication, public relations, marketing and journalism who are looking to develop their writing and editing skills for these ever-evolving fields and professions. This book also has accompanying Support Material that offers additional weekly activities and assignments providing students additional opportunity to put theory into practice.
