The Working Mother Ultimate Guide to Working From Home, 2021-05-04 The essential guide for work from home moms everywhere More than half of kids across the United States are learning virtually from home There are fewer daycare spots than ever before And more and more moms are clocking into their jobs from the kitchen table The coronavirus pandemic has erased the lines between work and home and made balancing the two more challenging than ever This book chock full of wisdom from the writers and editors at Working Mother provides solutions for moms tasked with filling the role of employee teacher and parent all while attempting to maintain a semblance of sanity Some of the many topics that this practical compendium addresses include How to manage your mental health Tips for taking care of an infant while working from home A plan to balance work and family How to create a workspace and a playspace under the same roof And much more New Mom, New Job Megan Day, 2020-09-01 New Mom New Job is the career change guide for women who are amazing at what they do but now have kids to consider in their quest for a life they love Megan Day a certified career coach and mom of two is a wise and trusted friend guiding women throughout New Mom New Job on what their next step is Within New Mom New Job she takes women through the process she has used with dozens of her clients Throughout its pages women learn The truth about why they have been second guessing themselves so much The reason why most women go back to their old jobs The difference between not being ready to go back to work and being scared How to identify if the job they have now is the right one for them What a transition plan is and how to create one that is easy to follow and commit to International Day of Persons with Disabilities - Children's Disabilities Olaf Kraus de Camargo, Thorsten Langer, Nihad A. Almasri, 2024-10-29 The International Day of Persons with Disabilities IDPD serves to globally promote an understanding of disability issues and mobilize support for the dignity rights and well being of persons with disabilities The theme of the most recent United Nations Day was transformative solutions for inclusive development the role of innovation in fuelling an accessible and equitable world It is in this spirit that Frontiers in Public Health is launching a new article collection inspired by this UN day with a specific focus on children with disabilities and how innovative public health solutions to support them can contribute to making the world a more equitable and prosperous world for all Incentivizing and retaining public servants in remote areas: A discrete choice experiment with agricultural extension agents in Ethiopia Regassa, Mekdim D., Abate, Gashaw T., Kubik, Zaneta, 2020-07-08 Increased deployment of agricultural extension agents EAs in rural areas is grounded on their importance to spur agricultural productivity and mitigate spatial imbalances in welfare However the high turnover and the low motivation levels of EAs in remote areas pose challenges for equitable service provision and in some cases exacerbates geographic disparities We assess the effectiveness of selected potential policy interventions to incentivize and retain EAs in remote areas of Ethiopia To this end we conducted a choice experiment to elicit preferences for job attributes of 761 EAs We applied a random parameters logit model to estimate parameters of interest and to simulate the impact of possible policy interventions The main results show that offering continuing education opportunities after two years of service increases uptake of an extension job in remote locations by 77 percentage points which is significantly higher than the effect from doubling current salary levels 70 percentage points EAs also expressed a strong preference for work environments with basic amenities housing transportation services and well-equipped Farmer Training Centers FTCs Furthermore the results from sub sample analyses show that female EAs are less responsive to pecuniary incentives and are more concerned with the availability of infrastructure and services Current salary levels years of employment and location of work are also important sources of heterogeneity in the response of EAs to potential policy changes Modern Families Sotirios Sarantakos,1996
