Early Netherlandish Painting Volume 9 Part2:

Early Netherlandish Painting National Gallery of Art (U.S.), John Oliver Hand, Martha Wolff, 1986 The volume contains entries for paintings in the National gallery that were produced in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries by artists from the Netherlands The entries are arranged alphabetically by artist a short biography and bibliography for each artist is followed by individual entries on the paintings each in order of acquisition The authors address traditional questions of attributes and iconography in addition they examine the social economic and religious context in which the individual work of art functioned The volume is also probable the first museum catalogue to include the results of examination by infrared reflectography and dendrochronological analysis The Viewer and the Printed Image in Late Medieval Europe David S. Areford, 2017-07-05

Structured around in depth and interconnected case studies and driven by a methodology of material contextual and iconographic analysis this book argues that early European single sheet prints in both the north and south are best understood as highly accessible objects shaped and framed by individual viewers Author David Areford offers a synthetic historical narrative of early prints that stresses their unusual material nature as well as their accessibility to a variety of viewers both lay and monastic This volume represents a shift in the study of the early printed image one that mirrors the widespread movement in art history away from issues of production style and the artist toward issues of reception function and the viewer Areford's approach is intensely grounded in the object especially the unacknowledged material complexity of the print as a portable malleable and accessible image that depended on a response that was not only visual but often physical emotional and psychological Recognizing that early prints were not primarily designed for aesthetic appreciation the author analyzes how their meanings stemmed from specific functions involving private devotion protection indulgences the cult of saints pilgrimage exorcism the art of memory and anti Semitic propaganda Although the medium's first century was clearly transitional and experimental Areford explores how its potential to impact viewers in new ways both positive and negative was quickly realized The Home Setting in Early Netherlandish Paintings Annette LeZotte, 2008 The Woodcut in Fifteenth-century Europe Peter W. Parshall, 2009

The advent of printing in Western Europe is a familiar historical milestone far less known is the emergence of a technology of image printing more than a generation before Gutenberg

The Embedded Portrait Christopher S. Wood, 2023-11-14 A new study of the early Renaissance portrait The William Appleton Coolidge Collection Peter C. Sutton, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1995 The collection formed by William Appleton Coolidge speaks of a remarkable breadth of taste of a spirit responsive to works of art of all periods and of visual discrimination of a high order Many of the works are intimate in scale appropriate for domestic contemplation and it is no surprise that this most unselfish of collectors delighted in sharing his prized possessions with his friends But he was also keen to benefit a wider audience for years the finest of them were on loan to the Museum of Fine Arts and before his death Mr Coolidge had begun to donate masterpieces including the paintings by Rubens and Signac There have been collectors who formed larger and greater collections however there were very few who cast their net as broadly as William Coolidge while sustaining such a consistently high level of quality His catholicity of taste is a characteristic virtue of the Boston past namely its intellectual curiosity about different times and peoples and its receptivity to good ideas regardless of point or period of origin There is still much to be learned and enjoyed in such an attitude Japan Review ,2011 Netherlandish Fifteenth and Sixteenth Century Paintings in the National Gallery of Ireland National Gallery of Ireland,Christiaan Vogelaar,1987 *Early Netherlandish Painting: pt. 1-2.
