Disowning Knowledge:

Disowning Knowledge Stanley Cavell, 2003-03-31 Reissued with a new essay on Macbeth this famous collection of essays on Shakespeare's tragedies considers these plays as responses to the crisis of knowledge and the emergence of modern skepticism provoked by the new science of the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries

Disowning Knowledge Stanley Cavell, 1987 Since the publication of his celebrated first essay on Shakespeare The Avoidance of Love A reading of King Lear Stanley Cavell has continued to explore radically new and provocative interpretations of a number of the plays This volume collects those writings for the first time and includes pieces not previously published The essays are bound together by a concern for scepticism In Coriolanus disdain Leontes and Othello's jealousy Hamlet's inertia and Lear's exorbitance Stanley Cavell sees Shakespeare as offering for the first time in European letters a profound diagnosis of the sceptical refusal to acknowledge truths about oneself and one's relations to others and as exploring the motives and tragic consequences of that refusal His readings of the plays are subtle and challenging and the insights they contain often startle by both their originality and their familiarity As a whole they present a unique point of view on the plays

Shakespeare: The Tragedies Nicolas Tredell, 2017-09-16 Shakespeare's tragedies are among the greatest works of tragic art and have attracted a rich range of commentary and interpretation from leading creative and critical minds This Reader's Guide offers a comprehensive survey of the key criticism on the tragedies from the 17th century through to the present day In this book Nicolas Tredell Introduces essential concepts themes and debates Relates Shakespeare's tragedies to fields of study including psychoanalysis gender race ecology and philosophy Summarises major critical texts from Dryden and Dr Johnson to Janet Adelman and Julia Reinhard Lupton and covers influential critical movements such as New Criticism New Historicism and poststructuralism Demonstrates how key critical approaches work in practice with close reference to Shakespeare's texts Informed and incisive this is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in how the category of Shakespeare's tragedies has been constructed contested and changed over the years

Film and Knowledge Kevin L. Stoehr, 2015-10-03 Film has become such an underpinning of art and pop culture that its potential for inspiring serious thought is often overlooked Our intellectual involvement with film has been minimized as more in the audience want to be merely amazed and entertained Essays written by both established and cutting edge philosophers of film concentrate in this work on the value of film in general and the value of certain films in particular for the study and teaching of ideas The essays explore such topics as the significance of narrative unity for self knowledge in David Lynch's Lost Highway and in Paul Schrader's Affliction ambiguity and responsibility in Akira Kurosawa's Rashomon consciousness and cognition in Orson Welles's Citizen Kane skepticism in Alfred Hitchcock's Suspicion and David Cronenberg's Naked Lunch language and gender in Neil Jordan's The Crying Game Platonic idealism in Chris Marker's La Jetee race in Spike Lee's Summer of Sam the concept of the imagination in cognitive film theory and the role of ideology in feminist film theory Instructors considering this book for use in a course
