Distant Mountains Chinese Painting 1st Edition:

A General History of Chinese Art Xifan Li, 2022-10-03 This volume analyses the history of Chinese art during the time of the Ming Dynasty during which the various traditions of painting academies were developed further leading to new painting styles and schools The volume also highlights the developments in music crafts porcelain and architecture A General History of Chinese Art comprises six volumes with a total of nine parts spanning from the Prehistoric Era until the 3rd year of Xuanton during the Qing Dynasty 1911 The work provides a comprehensive compilation of in depth studies of the development of art throughout the subsequent reign of Chinese dynasties and explores the emergence of a wide range of artistic categories such as but not limited to music dance acrobatics singing story telling painting calligraphy sculpture architecture and crafts Unlike previous reference books A General History of Chinese Art offers a broader overview of the notion of Chinese art by asserting a more diverse and less material understanding of arts as has often been the case in Western scholarship

Transforming Traditions in Modern Chinese Painting Jason C. Kuo, 2004 Modern Chinese painting embodies the constant renewal and reinvigorations of Chinese civilization amidst rebellions reforms and revolutions even if the process may appear confusing and bewildering It also demonstrates the persistence of tradition and limits of continuities and changes in modern Chinese culture Most significantly it compels us to ask several important questions in the study of modern Chinese culture How extensively can cultural tradition be re interpreted before it is subverted At what point is creative re invention an act of betrayal of tradition How has selective borrowing from Chinese tradition and foreign culture enabled modern Chinese artists to sustain themselves in the modern world By focusing on the art of Huang Binhong 1865-1955 particularly his late work this book attempts to provide some answers to these questions

The Century of Tung Ch'i-ch'ang, 1555-1636 Wai-kam Ho, 1992 At the end of the sixteenth century Tung Ch'i-ch'ang 1555-1636 painter calligrapher connoisseur art historian and theoretician and quintessential scholar official revolutionized Chinese painting and calligraphy He brought to these arts a new vision and historical perspective and established the direction both would follow for centuries to come Indeed he is generally recognized as the most important and influential figure in Chinese art to have appeared since the fourteenth century The Century of Tung Ch'i-ch'ang the first major exhibition and publication of Tung's painting and calligraphy reappraises this unparalleled artist in light of modern scholarship Not only are his most important works included in this study but examples of the works of more than forty major seventeenth century artists who were influenced by his genius have also been assembled to demonstrate his enormous impact on both the Orthodox and Individualist movements of later Chinese painting This international project organized by the Nelson Atkins Museum of Art Kansas City Missouri has been realized through the unprecedented cooperation of China's two preeminent museums the Beijing Palace Museum and the Shanghai Museum One hundred of the one hundred and seventy one works in the exhibition are on loan from these two renowned collections The material is rare and hitherto unknown masterpieces are made available for the first time to scholars and the general public alike The remaining works have been gathered from the most important public and private collections in Hong Kong Taiwan Japan Europe Australia and North America This two volume scholarly catalogue featuring more than seven hundred illustrations and including extensive biographical chronological and critical material is the work of a venerable team of international scholars who have made major contributions to the study of Tung Ch'ichang and his extraordinary influence on the history and evolution of Chinese painting and calligraphy Provided by publisher The Arts of China 900-1620 William Watson, 2000-01-01 This beautiful book is the second in a major three volume series that will survey China's immense wealth of art architecture and artefacts from prehistoric times to the twentieth century It covers the most prolific and broad ranging period of Chinese art history from the Song Dynasty with its spectacular landscape paintings to the Ming Dynasty with its lovely pottery William Watson considers architecture painting sculpture and the decorative arts in equal balance He follows styles and motifs as they are developed in each medium from one province to another and discusses materials and techniques as well as the iconography and function of every art form He also explores relationships between one medium and another tracing for example the influence of Buddhist iconography on sculptural traditions and on the architecture of temples and towers and showing how ceramic ornament affected the development of ornament in other media Harmony Garden J. D. Schmidt, 2013-12-16 This is the first complete study of China's most popular eighteenth century poet in any Western language The work consists of a detailed biography a study of Yuan's revolutionary reinterpretation of Chinese literary theory and an analysis of his many contributions to the more original genres of Qing dynasty 1644-1911 poetry such as narrative historical didactic eccentric and nature verse The study is concluded by a generous and representative sampling of Yuan's poetry in translation the first to do justice to the wide variety and richness of his oeuvre Although many shorter poems are selected this is the first translation to include his outstanding longer poetry Harmony Garden will completely revise current attitudes in the west concerning classical Chinese literature during the eighteenth century a period that was long viewed as one of decline but now appears to equal the golden ages of antiquity
