Isawa Elaigwu,2007 In 1966 a soft spoken 32 year old man emerged from relative obscurity and humble background to become Nigeria s Head of State and Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces His name was Lt Col later General Yakubu Gowon He emerged as the compromise candidate following the political crisis that engulfed the country after the July 1966 military coup that had led to the assassination of the country s first military Head of State General Aguiyi Ironsi At the end of the Civil War in 1970 General Gowon s doctrine of No Victor No Vanquished greatly endeared him to many and he was variously dubbed Abraham Lincoln of Nigeria a soft spoken but dynamic leader a real gentleman and an almost faultless administrator However after he was overthrown in a military coup in July 1975 long knives were drawn out for him with the hitherto friendly press and public crying crucify him and now variously vilifying him as weak and of managing a purposeless administration that had led to the drifting of the nation In this book Professor J Isawa Elaigwu attempts a scholarly political biography of someone he believes has rendered great services to the Nigerian nation despite his weaknesses as a leader He rejects the notion that Gowon s nine years in office were nine years of failure as the General s ardent critics posit arguing that if it is possible to identify a number of thresholds in his administration it is also possible to identify the approximate point in time when the strains of his administration became visible to observers and the public in general He poses and methodically seeks answers to a number of fundamental questions Who was Yakubu Gowon Why and how was the reservoir of goodwill and credibility which he had accumulated by the end of the Civil War expended What image of Nigeria did he have when he came into power And did he ever achieve his objectives The book first published in 1986 has been revised and expanded for this edition

G. Alan Tarr, Robert F. Williams, Josef Marko, 2004-08-30 It is widely asserted that federalism often involving subnational
