Distributist Perspectives:

Distributist Perspectives: Essays on the economics of justice and charity John Sharpe, 2004 The writings collected here are from a school of English thinkers in the 1930s and 1940s who were concerned about the desperate state of modern society The writers include G K Chesterton H J Massingham Eric Gill Hilaire Belloc Herbert Shove and Arthur Pentty They study various parts of the problem of capitalist society the origins benefits and demerits of industrialism the importance of art to society and its sufferance under capitalism the size of commercial organization and its relevance to efficiency the nature and purpose of work as a concept and the crucial nature of understanding the present through real knowledge of the past

Distributist Perspectives D. Liam O'Huallachain, John Sharpe, 2008 This compilation of important distributist authors delivers valuable insight into the manifest problems of society Although most of the contributions were written more than 50 years ago the questions raised by the writers have remained largely unanswered and essays regarding topics like education work and freedom have lost little relevance in the ensuing decades Featured authors include Eric Gill Harold J Massingham and Dorothy Sayers

Abraham Lincoln's Statesmanship and the Limits of Liberal Democracy Jon D. Schaff, 2019-07-03 This bold groundbreaking study of American political development assesses the presidency of Abraham Lincoln through the lenses of governmental power economic policy expansion of executive power and natural rights to show how Lincoln not only believed in the limitations of presidential power but also dedicated his presidency to restraining the scope and range of it Though Lincoln's presidency is inextricably linked to the Civil War and he is best known for his defense of the Union and executive wartime leadership Lincoln believed that Congress should be at the helm of public policy making Likewise Lincoln may have embraced limited government in vague terms but he strongly supported effective rule of law and distribution of income and wealth Placing the Lincoln presidency within a deeper and more meaningful historical context Abraham Lincoln's Statesmanship and the Limits of Liberal Democracy highlights Lincoln's significance in the development of American power institutions and social movement politics Using Lincoln's prepresidential and presidential words and actions this book argues that decent government demands a balance of competing goods and the strong statesmanship that Lincoln exemplified Instead of relying too heavily on the will of the people and institutional solutions to help prevent tyranny Jon D Schaff proposes that American democracy would be better served by a moderate and prudential statesmanship such as Lincoln's which would help limit democratic excesses Schaff explains how Lincoln's views on prudence moderation natural rights and economics contain the notion of limits then views Lincoln's political and presidential leadership through the same lens He compares Lincoln's views on governmental powers with the defense of unlimited government by twentieth century progressives and shows how Lincoln's theory of labor anticipated twentieth century distributist economic thought Schaff's unique exploration falls squarely between historians who consider Lincoln a protoprogressive and those who say his presidency was a harbinger of industrialized corporatized America In analyzing Lincoln's approach Abraham Lincoln's Statesmanship and the Limits of Liberal Democracy rejects the idea he was a revolutionary statesman and instead lifts up Lincoln's own affinity for limited presidential power making the case for a modest approach to presidential power today based on this understanding of Lincoln's statesmanship As a counterpoint to the contemporary landscape of bitter uncivil politics Schaff points to Lincoln's statesmanship as a model for better ways of engaging in politics in a democracy Early Ecotheology and Joseph Sittler Panu Pihkala, 2017 When did Christians begin to address environmental questions What can be learned from these pioneering thinkers This study reveals that between 1910 and 1954 many theologians called for responsibility towards nature The focal point is the work of Joseph Sittler 1904-1987 an American Lutheran and ecumenical theologian The role of these early ecotheologians is discussed in relation to environmental history and education The findings show that ecotheology was not as strongly separated from other environmentalism as it was after the 1960s Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 12 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecotheology Joseph Sittler Suffering and Bioethics Ronald Michael Green, Nathan J. Palpant, 2014 Before curing was a possibility medicine was devoted to the relief of suffering Attention to the relief of suffering often takes a back seat in modern biomedicine This book seeks to place suffering at the center of biomedical attention examining suffering in its biological psychological clinical religious and ethical dimensions Placed People David Harden, 2015-12-30 Modern humans are given lots of labels Some see humans as consumers consumers of goods services and entertainment for the Economy Some see humans as souls to be saved Some say humans are destructive animals that must not think too highly of themselves at the peril of the planet All of these often competing and contradictory labels beg the question What are people for This book locates the starting point for answering this question in a placed perspective and examines what G K Chesterton C S Lewis and Wendell Berry have to show us in this regard These authors rooted perspectives challenge us to see our communities and ourselves differently God & Money Charles McDaniel, 2007 God Money confronts the current dominant right wing Republican evangelical Christian view that unfettered market driven capitalism and Christian faith and values are compatible Drawing on such ethical luminaries as Reinhold Niebuhr G K Chesterton Peter Berger and John Paul II author Charles McDaniel shows that to reverse the current decline in public morality capitalism must be balanced by enduring religious and moral values Challenging the captivity of Christian culture by free market global capitalism McDaniel joins other Christian ethical visionaries in advocating a redemptive economy one that champions individual human dignity true community and the moral regeneration of cultural traditions in vital dialectic with the inevitable market capitalism of the contemporary world G.K.'s Weekly, 1925 Toward a Truly Free Market John Medaille, 2023-10-17 Taking free markets from rhetoric to reality For three decades free market leaders have tried to reverse longstanding Keynesian economic policies but have only produced larger government greater debt and more centralized economic power So how can we achieve a truly free market system especially at this historical moment when capitalism seems to be in crisis The answer

says John C Medaille is to stop pretending that economics is something on the order of the physical sciences it must be a humane science taking into account crucial social contexts Toward a Truly Free Market argues that any attempt to divorce economic equilibrium from economic equity will lead to an unbalanced economy one that falls either to ruin or to ruinous government attempts to redress the balance Medaille makes a refreshingly clear case for the economic theory and practice known as distributism Unlike many of his fellow distributists who argue primarily from moral terms Medaille enters the economic debate on purely economic terms Toward a Truly Free Market shows exactly how to end the bailouts reduce government budgets reform the tax code fix the health care system and much more Perspectives ,2004 Christian Scholar's Review ,2005 Dictionary of Liberal Thought Duncan Brack,Ed Randall,2007 Do you often find yourself saying I m so busy or I just have so much to do It s easy to get overwhelmed with appointments gatherings to do lists But what are we really doing with our time Many of us are running from place to place and it seems like life is just passing us by We re doing so many things a little bit of everything and yet it doesn t feel like much of a life But most of us find it hard to say no We feel obligated There are so many good things to do So many good caus G.K.'s Weekly and the Weekly Review ,1927 Chronicles ,2005 A Path of Our Own Adam Kempton Webb,2009 A Path of Our Own tells the story of Pomatambo a village in one of the poorest parts of Peru s highlands Adam Webb brings to life the experiences of three generations of these humble peasants as they have been confronted by the modern world and tried to find a place in it Through a land reform a bloody Maoist insurgency and the economic turbulence of more recent years Pomatambo has looked for a way to break out of dire poverty while staying true to its own values and identity But this is much more than the story of one village Pomatambo s tale of hard times mirrors how traditional communities all over the world have been ill served by the dominant ideologies of the twentieth century Webb s poignant and insightful narrative demonstrates that the governments and movements of both right and left have not only failed to deliver for the rural poor but also have assaulted much that they hold dear He maps out a vision of how traditional communities like Pomatambo can reclaim the future rather than surrender to others plans for them And he imagines an economy of values that at last could bring a just and decent prosperity to the countryside of the global South and elsewhere How to be Free Tom Hodgkinson,2006 Drawing on the French existentialists British punks the US beats hippies and yuppies medieval thinkers anarchists and 1970s back to the landers such as Ivan Illich Idlereditor Tom Hodgkinson provides a new simple joyful blueprint for modern living He shows that consumer society has led not to a widening of freedoms but to the opposite and that the key to a free life is to stop consuming and start producing We are not consumers we are creators Following up his cult bestseller How To Be Idle Tom Hodgkinson takes us on an inspirational journey towards true freedom and happiness Read How To Be Freeand learn how to throw off the shackles of anxiety bureaucracy debt governments housework moaning pain poverty ugliness war and waste and much else besides Crisis ,2005 A journal of lay Catholic opinion Searchlight ,2004 The Attack on Leviathan
