Disturbing Strangers:

Ontological Security in International Relations Brent J. Steele, 2008-03-10 This volume demonstrates that ontological security is a major motivating rationale for state action and inaction challenging and complementing realist liberal and constructivist accounts to international politics Disturbing Stranger Charlotte Lamb, 1990 Vernacular Border Security Nick Vaughan-Williams, 2021-06-01 Since the peak of Europe's so called 2015 migration crisis the dominant governmental response has been to turn to deterrent border security across the Mediterranean and construct border walls throughout the EU During the same timeframe EU citizens are widely represented by politicians by media sources and by opinion polls as fearing a loss of control over national and EU borders Despite the intensification of EU border security with visibly violent effects EU citizens are portrayed as threatened majorities These dynamics beg the question Why is it that tougher deterrent border security and walling appear to have heightened rather than diminished border anxieties among EU citizens While the populist mantra of taking back control purports to speak on behalf of EU citizens little is known about how diverse EU citizens conceptualize understand and talk about the so called crisis Yet if social and cultural meanings of migration and border security are constructed intersubjectively and contested politically Weldes et al 1999 then EU citizens as well as governmental elites and people on the move are significant in shaping dominant framings of and responses to the crisis This book argues that in order to address the overarching puzzle a conceptual and methodological shift is required in the way that border security is understood a new approach is urgently required that complements top down analyses of elite governmental practices with bottom up vernacular studies of how those practices are both reproduced and contested in everyday life The Anarii Chronicles VIII - The Purpose Alii M. Bek, Framing Muslims Peter Morey, Amina Yaqin, 2011-09-05 Can Muslims ever fully be citizens of the West Can the values of Islam ever be brought into accord with the individual freedoms central to the civic identity of Western nations Not if you believe what you see on TV Whether the bearded fanatic the veiled oppressed female or the shadowy terrorist plotting our destruction crude stereotypes permeate public representations of Muslims in the United States and western Europe But these Muslims are caricatures distorted abstractions wrought in the most garish colors that serve to reduce the diversity and complexity of the Muslim world to a set of fixed objects suitable for sound bites and not much else In Framing Muslims Stereotyping and Representation after 9 11 Peter Morey and Amina Yaqin dissect the ways in which stereotypes depicting Muslims as an inherently problematic presence in the West are constructed deployed and circulated in the public imagination producing an immense gulf between representation and a considerably more complex reality Crucially they show that these stereotypes are not solely the province of crude minded demagogues and their tabloid megaphones but multiply as well from the lips of supposedly progressive elites even those who presume to speak from within on Muslims behalf Based on nuanced analyses of cultural representations in both the United States and the UK the authors draw our attention to a circulation of stereotypes about

Muslims that sometimes globalizes local biases and at other times brings national differences into sharper relief Two Strangers Mrs. Oliphant (Margaret),1894 Margery Edward Frederic Benson,1910 Jane--our Stranger Mary Borden,1923 The Fortnightly Review ,1929 Juggernaut Edward Frederic Benson,1911 Life and Letters of James David Forbes John Campbell Shairp,1873 The Fortnightly ,1929 Sociology of Waiting Paul Christopher Price,2021-05-04 In Sociology of Waiting Paul Christopher Price investigates how people wait and analyzes what individuals do while waiting It is a key feature within U S and other societies waiting is universal Sociologically waiting gets at order and our ability or inability to pause Crowds cannot rush into concert venues and supermarket clerks cannot check out customers simultaneously So we must wait In all our waiting we ve developed strategies and structures for delays and such methods and structures provide order as well as understanding we recognize why we wait The sociology of waiting is a classic piece of everyday sociology a timeless piece of routine behavior Waiting is as natural as breathing eating and drinking indeed mothers wait nine months before infants are brought to term and summer will always follow spring Waiting provides its own lessons That is watching cars weave through traffic and receive citations by police we learn that waiting may have saved time and money Shining the light on waiting permits a far superior understanding of order and how our society organizes itself around taking turns Waiting is a matter that takes up much of our valuable time and resources consequently reducing wait time has become big business The American and English Encyclopædia of Law David Shephard Garland,Lucius Polk McGehee,James Cockcroft,1905 The Law Journal ,1895 Life and Letters of James David Forbes, F.R.S John Campbell Shairp,Peter Guthrie,Anthony Adams-Reilly,1873 Bookbird ,1994 The Poetical Works of Mrs. Horace Dobell Elizabeth Mary Fordham Dobell,1910 In the 'Stranger people's' country, by Charles Egbert Craddock Charles Egbert Craddock,Mary Noailles Murfree,1893 The Host Gaze in Global Tourism Omar Moufakkir,Yvette Reisinger,2013 Most tourism theories have been developed from the tourists perspective including the seminal work by John Urry The Tourist Gaze which is now a classic text The Host Gaze in Global Tourism is a unique book for researchers and students as it is the first to look at the host gaze from within the host community It discusses how the gaze is constructed how it has developed how it varies between countries and how the tourism industry can affect it By looking at the gazes of both Western and non Western hosts this book analyses the dynamics of a host destination and consequences th
