innovative development techniques and best practices is essential for obtaining optimum results in meeting the needs of society. They examine the style of managing development with a new perspective that links the phenomenon with changing demands and the interplay of internal external actors and a host of stakeholders. An exploration of key sectors in development provides clear comprehension of problems and solutions. A careful synthesis of theoretical conceptual and empirical literature the book assesses real world situations and provides insight into the operational dynamics of development policies programs and institutions. It focuses on goals values and dynamics of development management that are undergoing rapid changes and continue to be enhanced to alleviate poverty and improve living standards in an era of globalization and inter regional and inter institutional synergies. It highlights best practices essential for the efficient and effective delivery of human development services that are designed and put in place to obtain optimum results in meeting the needs of society.

Minority Languages and Multilingual Education Durk Gorter, Victoria Zenotz, Jasone Cenoz, 2013-11-04. This book presents research on the situation minority language schoolchildren face when they need to learn languages of international communication in particular English. The book takes minority languages as a starting point and it bridges local and global perspectives in the analysis of multilingual education contexts. It examines the interaction of minority languages and cultures majority languages and lingua franca s in a variety of settings across different regions and countries on all continents. Even though all chapters in this book involve minority languages the issues discussed are relevant to any context in which more than language is used in education. The book reveals challenges and opportunities of multilingual education by discussing issues such as Northern and Southern concepts language education policies language diversity interethnic understanding multimodal language practices power conflict identity and prestige among many others This is the volume that finally accounts for multilingual education from a truly multilingual perspective by involving proposals and research from a variety of multilingual speech communities in the world The linguistically rich Ethiopia and Mexico can teach the poor Europe and other Northern countries about multilingual education CLIL promoters may learn from Finnish Sami and Canadian Innu and Mi'gmaq indigenous communities as well as from Basque results Speakers and teachers of minority and international languages will certainly be glad to hear the news There is no need for a monolingual bias or tunnel vision in acquiring English in non English speaking communities This volume includes new challenging pedagogical perspectives while pointing to interesting conclusions for worldwide educational authorities Maria Pilar Safont Jord Universitat Jaume I Castell Spain American Book Publishing Record ,2002 International Business Ehud Menipaz,Amit
