New Manager s Tool Kit provides those charged with managing and leading others the tools and real world knowledge they need to succeed and open themselves up for further advancement Gender-inclusive toolkit for financial institutions in sub-Saharan Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,ITC;2025-03-20 The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and the International Trade Centre have collaborated to support women in overcoming gender based obstacles in the context of the African Continental Free Trade Area agreement The Empowering Women and Boosting Livelihoods through Agricultural Trade Leveraging the African Continental Free Trade Area programme developed in 2021 aims to promote women s participation in the agreement and increase their access to capacity building and higher productivity activities This initiative capitalizes on the new opportunities in regional trade created by the agreement One of the main challenges women face is access to finance Agriculture is traditionally associated with lower returns and high risk investments and women are perceived to be a riskier segment due to discriminatory social and gender norms These biases affect capital providers perceptions of women as well as women s financial literacy bookkeeping skills and investment readiness Furthermore the lack of collateral is a major constraint largely due to women s limited ownership and control over land in Africa The objective of this toolkit is to raise awareness of the business case for financing women in agricultural value chains and to provide financial institutions with practical guidance for advancing gender inclusive strategies across different parts of their organizations This toolkit complements a policy brief developed under the same programme which provides concrete recommendations for financiers and other relevant stakeholders to foster gender responsive financing Building on case studies from Ghana and Nigeria the policy brief offers insights for promoting gender inclusive financial practices in the agrifinancing ecosystem The Diversity Machine Frederick R. Lynch,2017-07-05 Diversity has become the turn of the century buzzword Republican and Democratic leaders ritually chant diversity is our strength and corporate CEOs talk about the need to create a workforce that looks like America Most corporate mission statements now contain a clause on valuing differences and millions of employees have completed or soon will undergo some sort of diversity training Where did all this come from and why Who created diversity programs How do they differ How effective are these policies Can they do more harm than good in organizations and in the wider society During the past decade sociologist Frederick R Lynch studied the rise of a social policy movement that has successfully moved multiculturalism from universities and foundations into the courts mass media and the American workplace The new diversity policies are future oriented and market driven eclipsing old affirmative action debates about overcoming past discrimination against blacks Based on more than six years of field research and hundreds of interviews Lynch tracks the development and impact of different forms of diversity policies at dozens of consultant gatherings in the business and professional literature and through in depth case studies such as the Los Angeles Sheriff s Department and the University of Michigan Ann Arbor He profiles the major consultants who have powered the diversity machine analyzes the benefits and drawbacks of various approaches to workplace diversity and provides numerous you are there samples of workshops seminars and conferences The book is written for the general reader interested in public policy issues social scientists and others interested in the origins and consequences of workplace diversity policies     Diversity ,2017     Diversity Toolkit ,2003     How to work with your communities South East Museum, Library and Archive Council,Lisa Kerley,2005     Access All Areas Ben Ewan,Niamh O'Carolan,Anne Walsh,National Youth Council of Ireland,Youthnet Northern Ireland,2012     DIVERSITY TOOLKIT.
